NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK PROCLAMATION

Whereas, music has a great part in the development and betterment of all mankind; and,
Whereas, May 7-14, 1950, has been chosen by the National Committee on National and Inter-American Music Week; and,

Whereas, it is my desire to seek the best for the culture and enjoyment of my city;
THEREFORE, I, T. D. Craddock, mayor of the city of Crockett, Texas, do proclaim and declare that the week of May 7-14, 1950, be designated in the City of Crockett, as National and Inter-American Music Week.

T. D. Craddock,
Mayor, City of Crockett.

JOHN J. SHAW ISSUES STATEMENT

TO ALL THE VOTERS OF COMMISSIONERS' PRECINCT NO. 3 AND CITIZENS OF HOUSTON COUNTY:
BEING A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION, I FEEL THAT YOU PEOPLE are well aware of the service that I have rendered. I may continue so busy that I may not have time to chat with each of you; excess rains may require our time on the roads.

I feel that you folks realize that I do spend all of my time in the interest of the County and especially my precinct. If such personal service merits your continued confidence, I shall again appreciate the office another term. I would like to see our present program further advanced before retiring from office, especially the farm to market roads now in the making. I realize that this is your office and I do not wish to appear greedy, though I do feel that I am prepared to render you further economical service and I shall continue to devote my entire time to your services and in the interest of the County as a whole.

I want you to know that I am very grateful for what you have done, and I shall certainly appreciate your vote and influence again; and if honored with the office I will give my best to your interest in my precinct and that of the county.

Very sincerely,
John J. Shaw, Commissioner
Precinct No. 3, Houston County.
Adv. It.

School Officials Honored.

All school officials connected with the Glover schools were invited guests at a fish fry Monday evening. The affair was held at McNally's camp on Neches river.

INVITATION GOLF TOURNAMENT HERE STARTS FRIDAY

The fourth annual invitation golf tournament of the Spring Creek Country Club of Crockett gets under way Friday. The Courier is advised that acceptance have been received from a select field of amateur golfers, a field not usually found in tournament in towns the size of Crockett.

Among the top flight amateurs to be here are Bobby Reigel, recent amateur winner of the Brazos Open in Houston and former Texas and Mexico City amateur champion; Dick McGreary, former Texas and Indiana state champion; Mike D'Esaro, former Texas public champion and national public runner-up, winner of the local event in 1948 and 1949; Ed Herron, former Arkansas state champion and winner of many meets, and Jackie Solman, 1947 winner of the Crockett tournament, all from Houston.

Just a few of the many others include Gerald Joyce Jr. of Palestine, former all-Southwest Conference star, and Miller Barber of Texarkana, freshman star at A. & M. College and recent winner of the Conroe invitation tournament. The field will be limited to 80 players. The low 80 qualifiers of Friday will be listed.

Friday night will be marked by a big barbecue at the club, when open house will be held. Tickets are on sale at three dollars each in local business houses.

Saturday and Sunday will be open house on the golf course and the public is invited to watch these golf stars perform. There will be no charge to the "gallery." First and second round matches will be held Saturday. Semifinals will be played Sunday.

MISTRIAL RESULTS DAMAGE SUIT IN DISTRICT COURT

A suit for damages, styled Melvin M. Jones vs. Guy A. Thompson, Trustee, Missouri Pacific Railroad Company, resulted in a mistrial in district court here Thursday.

In the suit the plaintiff claimed negligence on the part of the railroad company in erection of culverts and strengthening "Town Branch," which he claimed caused damage to his land. Monday morning of last week was consumed in selection of a jury. Testimony took up Monday afternoon and Tuesday. The charge was given the jury at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon and attorneys then argued the case, which went to the jury about 4:30 p. m. After deliberating until 7:30 p. m. the jurors went home, resuming deliberation at 8:30 Thursday morning. At 11:30 Thursday morning the jurors had answered only four of the 22 questions submitted them and reported themselves hopelessly deadlocked. Judge V. Melvin Johnston then discharged the jury and declared a mistrial.

The case of J. A. Mason et ux vs. E. Y. Watson et al., also set for Monday of last week, was passed.

FOOTBALL CARD FIVE HOME GAMES

Crockett High School's 1950 football schedule includes five home games, of which three are district games. A typographical error last week caused the schedule to show Grapeland playing in Crockett twice. The second date, November 10, should have shown Huntsville at Crockett.

The complete schedule is:
Sept. 8, Silsbee at Crockett.
Sept. 15, Crockett at Franklin.
Sept. 29, Crockett at Hearne.
Oct. 6, Grand Saline at Crockett.
*Oct. 13, Crockett at Madisonville.
*Oct. 20, Alto at Crockett.
*Oct. 27, Grapeland at Crockett.
*Nov. 3, Crockett at Livingston.
*Nov. 10, Huntsville at Crockett.
*Nov. 17, Crockett at Rusk.
* Denotes district 18-A game.

Schools Get Commodities.

Houston county schools Friday received a shipment of surplus commodities consisting of 52 cases of raisins, 113 cases of canned peaches and 20 cases of canned apricots. These commodities will be distributed to school lunch rooms over the county, states County School Supt. Marcus Mason. Mr. Mason said that the schools are expected to receive shortly a shipment of 2700 pounds of turkey.

White men cannot vote in Liberia.

INJUNCTION NOT ALLOWED IN SUIT HEARD SATURDAY

District Judge V. Melvin Johnston of Palestine, presiding in Houston county district court, Saturday dissolved a temporary restraining order and denied an injunction in the suit of Texas Long Leaf Lumber Company vs. O. F. Grimes. The suit involved cutting of saw timber. Attorneys for the plaintiffs were Adams & Morgan, while the defendant was represented by J. B. Sallas.

Judgment was entered Saturday for the defendants in the damage suit of Clayton Robinson vs. Loyd Lovell et al. J. B. Thompson, attorney for the plaintiff, stated that he would file a motion for a new trial in the suit, this action being a predicate for an appeal of the case.

GERALD CHENEY PEGGY SPENCE GO TO AUSTIN

Gerald Cheney and Peggy Spence will represent Crockett High School in the state interscholastic league meet at Austin this week-end. Cheney will enter the mile run in the class A track and field meet, with high hopes of winning a first place. He finished fourth in the event last year. Reports are that some of the class A milers have been getting good time, although only one high school miler has beaten Cheney this year—Rodriguez of Crockett Tech, Dallas (city conference).

Miss Spence will compete in the shorthand contest. She recently won first place in this event in the regional meet at Huntsville in class A competition.

DAILEY ELECTED BY CLASSROOM TEACHERS HERE

Charles Dailey of Grapeland was elected president of the Houston County Classroom Teachers' association in a meeting held in Crockett Tuesday night, April 25. He will succeed Mrs. Betty English of Latexo schools.

Other officers of the association elected last week include: Mrs. Gussie Easterly of Crockett and Miss Wynne Dell Barnhill of Kennard, vice-presidents; J. C. Merriweather of Glover, secretary, and Mrs. Tom Rhoden of Austin schools, treasurer.

A feature of the meeting was an address by Mrs. Janie Alexander of El Paso, president of the state association of classroom teachers.

SCHOOLMASTERS MEET RATCLIFF LAKE MAY 20

The Houston County Schoolmasters' Club will hold their monthly meeting for May on Saturday evening, the 20th, at Ratcliff Lake. The school administrators of Anderson county have been invited as guests for the occasion, which will feature a fish fry.

Five members of the state department of education have been asked to attend the meeting. Up to Saturday, two of the five had accepted invitations. County School Superintendent Marcus Mason, president of the Houston county group, stated that he expected around 50 school men to be on hand for the occasion.

J. A. FERRELL FOR COMMISSIONER PRECINCT NO. 4

Mr. J. A. Ferrell announces this week for commissioner of precinct No. 4, Houston county. With the exception of seven years, Mr. Ferrell has lived in precinct 4 all of his life. He has had several years of experience in road and bridge work. He has also served as superintendent on four different federal road jobs. In making his announcement for the office, Mr. Ferrell said: "I want to assure you that, if elected, I will serve you as capably and as efficiently as any commissioner you ever had. It is not better. And your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated."

MOORE-MARION NUPTIALS FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

The First Methodist church was the scene Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Moore and Mr. James Elwood Marion. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Moore of Crockett. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. O. L. Mackey of Longview. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Leslie LeGrand.

Organ music preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. I. Loyd Foote, Mr. V. B. Tunstall, who accompanied on the violin. Mrs. George Echols of Tyler, an aunt of the bride, sang the bridal solo, "Beecham."

Miss Betty Satterwhite and Mrs. Jack O'Neil of Waco lighted the candles.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a white satin bridal gown. The yoke was lace, with a sweetheart neckline. The skirt was accented with a ruffle and extended into a formal length train.

Her three tiered veil of silk illusion fell to fingertip length. The bridal bouquet was of stephanotis, gardenias and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. W. T. Vaden, sister of the bride, attended as matron-of-honor. Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Bohannon of Fort Worth. Bridesmaids were Misses Jane and Martha Spillo of Crockett. The attendants wore dresses of pastel shades and pink net. Their halos were garlands of pink leather and rose carnations tied with pink net. They carried bouquets of rose carnations tied with pink satin ribbons.

Mr. Jack O'Neil of Waco served the groom as best man. The ushers were Dewitt McDaniel Jr. of Waco and Billy Perdue and John Carter Ramey of Crockett.

The bride's mother wore a navy crepe dress with pink net hat and pink accessories. The groom's mother also wore a navy crepe with a navy hat and navy accessories. Their corsages were pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A crystal bowl with white stock and white carnations centered the table which was covered with a cut work cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, graced one end of the table. The crystal punch bowl, presided over by Mrs. Joe Bennett, was at the other end. Miss Maude Hall served the cake and Mrs. Pat Malone presided at the bride's book.

In the house party were Mesdames T. E. Callier, Earl Stowe, T. E. Walden and Jack O'Neil.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Colorado and New Mexico, and will reside in Crockett upon their return. For traveling, the bride chose a white silk faille skirt with red and white accessories.

Mrs. Marion is a graduate of Arlington High School and attended Arlington Junior College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Gaston High School, attended Baylor University and during the war was a paratrooper. Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. O. L. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Daniel, Mrs. T. D. Campbell, Mrs. Tom B. Frances, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, from Longview; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, Ann Lee and Skipper Moore from Houston; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Oney, New Braunfels; Dr. J. E. Mackey, Paris; Mrs. George Echols, Becky and George Echols Jr., Tyler.

LAMYRLE EUBANKS WEDS Q. D. SCARBOROUGH

A wedding of no little interest was that of Miss LaMyrle Eubanks to Mr. Q. D. Scarborough at the First Methodist church in Crockett (in the Methodist parsonage) at 9:30 o'clock Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leslie LeGrand, the Methodist pastor.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Eubanks of Lubbock, but had accepted responsible employment in Crockett, being bookkeeper for the Stowe Lumber Company. She is noted as one of Crockett's most lovely girls.

The bridegroom, Mr. Scarborough, is a son of Mrs. D. B. Scarborough of this city. He is one of Crockett's young business men.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Scarborough will make their home in this city, where they have the best wishes of an extensive friendship and acquaintance.

The wedding was witnessed by only a few close friends.

LOCATION NEGRO GIRLS' SCHOOL HERE PROTESTED

A petition, protesting the establishment of a negro girls' reformatory and correctional school at Crockett, was being circulated at the end of last week by property owners on the Crockett-Houston highway, near the proposed location of the school. A report had it that 265 signatures had been obtained up to noon Saturday. Neither Mayor T. D. Craddock nor City Secretary J. D. Woodson had seen the petition, they said Monday afternoon.

The petition reportedly asks the city council to rescind any or all action taken and, failing that, to put the matter before the people in an election. Proponents of the petition claim that establishment of the school will depreciate the value of the property in the area, and that they believe a majority of the people of Crockett are opposed to having the school located here.

The city council recently authorized Mayor Craddock to borrow $10,000 from the First National Bank of Crockett for purchase of approximately 150 acres of land from Leo Knox for the school site. It also authorized the making of a note for the balance due on the property, which was purchased for $70 an acre. Payment probably has already been made to the seller of the land.

Meanwhile, the city airport property has been offered for sale, proceeds to apply on retirement of the indebtedness for the school site. Original plan was to offer the state airport property, but this land was deemed too far from town for the purpose and the alternate site was approved by the state board.

The state board handling the matter has reportedly employed a Houston firm to do architectural work and is reported preparing to let contracts for more than $150,000 in new buildings to be completed by December 1, and ready for occupancy by January 1, at which time the reform school is to be moved from Brady here, according to present plans.

Bill Hogan to Boys' State.

Bill Hogan has been selected to represent Glover High School at Boys' State in Austin next month. A member of the junior class at Glover, he will be sponsored by the school, announces Supt. Elmer Langham.
