GROVETON WINNER TOURNAMENT OVER NACOGDOCHES HERE

The Groveton All-Stars won the basketball tournament for independent teams here Saturday night by defeating the Nacogdoches Independents in the final 71 to 64. Acker Hanks and Murray Mitchell paced the scoring for the winners, with Martin high for the home team.

Groveton—Hanks, 21, and Lawrence, 8, forwards; Mitchell, 16, center; Fatt, 9, and Gibson, guards; Sanford, 12, Roach and Ashworth, 5, substitutes.

Nacogdoches—Carlington, 8, and Fulmer, 8, forwards; Whitteley, 8, center; Martin, 10, and Goss, 2, guards; Froulin, 10, and Goss, 2, guards; Froulin, 10, and Goss, 2, guards; Froulin, 10, and Goss, 2, guards.

Score by quarters:
Groveton 21 20 40 71
Nacogdoches 11 20 33 64

The tournament opened Thursday night, before a small crowd, with Groveton whipping over Huntsville 73 to 61. Groveton built up a 41-20 margin the first half and kept the lead. Murray Mitchell counted 21 points, Winton Lawrence 10 and Steve Lloyd 14 to pace the winners. Groveton, with 22, Tom Blomgren, with 10, and Heaton, with 9, led the Nacogdoches scoring.

In the second Thursday game, Piny Woods, Huston College of Law, defeated the Nacogdoches 50 to 25. Jack Taylor got 17 points and 14 for the winners, Jones accounted for 12 for the Lovelady team.

Jacksonville Independents and Hound Brothers of Groveton failed to arrive, so Nacogdoches and Crockett advanced to the semi-finals by default. These teams played an exhibition, with Nacogdoches winning 19 to 20. Fulmer got 10 points and Martin 12 for the winners, while Law Graham 10 for Crockett.

In the first semi-final Saturday night, Groveton topped Piny Woods 47 to 40. Mitchell bagged 16 points, while Hanks got 14, all in the second half. Lee Taylor accounted for 14 and Jack Taylor 13 in the fourth quarter, when Crockett had been

[McDONALD] [uncertain] DECLARES HE WILL RUN AFTER ALL

[Auth, Texas,] [uncertain] Margh 2, 4 [1. Mo.] [uncertain] Donald, elder [polltleat] [uncertain] hate of the [Btato] [uncertain] Democratic party, changed his mind Thursday and [deckted] [uncertain] to run wendy for commissioner of agriculture,

His decision put the race for the post din a topay-turvy state. Mor twenty [yonra] [uncertain] ho has [heen wnbeatahto] [uncertain] for [thd] [uncertain] job despite a dozen years of feuding with Domocrate policies nationally,

He announced on January 24 ho would retire. [Several] [uncertain] candidates in mediately announced mid [othern] [uncertain] were prepared to get in, the race,

But Thursday, McDonald tersely announced:

Many [ugricultural] [uncertain] people [belleve] [uncertain] that within the next two years a constructive and enduring agricultural program must be provided and that ng Texas [comminsioncr.] [uncertain] of agriculture I could bo helpful.

Therefore, have reconsidered and [ama] [uncertain] candidate for re-election."

How many of the announced candidates will stay in the race ts un certain, In years past, [McDonalds] [uncertain] power [In] [uncertain] Texan elections has kept the field to a minimum.

Those who have announced so far include R. FE. [(Peppy)] [uncertain]

Blount, state [Tey CREE NaH OR BU] [uncertain] ag aa [yRET] [uncertain] oe James H. Griffin of Roma Valley farmer whom [McDonald dofdhted] [uncertain] two years ago; William M. [(Bill)] [uncertain] Armand of Houston and John White of Wichita Falls, Another state representative, C. [L.] [uncertain] Mclatlan of Engle Lake, was preparing to announce in a few days.

[MecDonald] [uncertain] has been nominated by the Democratic party and elected as commissioner of agriculture for ten 2-yeenr terms," But wd [dozdiv] [uncertain] yours ago he got at odds with his party national policies. [8] [uncertain]

He opposed Henry A, Wallace, [thei] [uncertain] the late President Roosevelts secretary of agriculture, me,

Party regulars called for his defeat, but McDonald stuck to his New Deal opposition and won every time. Republicans gave him a pat on the back by not making the usual token nomination of opposition to him.

Ten years ago McDonald broke from the party to support the late Wendell Willkie, the Republican nominee. Texas went Democratic but still [re-lect="~"] [uncertain] ed McDonald wf

Again in 1944 and 1948 he supported the Republican presidential ticket
