Early records show that in the next year, 29 persons were confirmed, of which 26 were negroes.

The assumption is," says Rey, Mr.

Spindler, that these negroes were slaves" and that their masters were taking care-of-their spiritual affairs as well as their temporal matters."

At any- rate, one of the more pros[perous] [uncertain] members, Col. David Alex- order Nunn, purchased these vessels for the communion [sérvice,] [uncertain]

Because, probably, of war condi[tions,] [uncertain] instead of being sterling sil- [ver,] [uncertain] they were silver-plated, bearing the imprint of Reed Barton,

Whether they were intended for [ise ecifie] [uncertain] church, we do not know. At any rate, they were-lost sight of and everyone took it for granted that the vessels were lost forever.

Then last summer, Mrs. Hatch W.

Cummings Jr. of Houston, a niece of Dave Nunn, was moving and she found the vessels in the [bot] [uncertain] tom of a8 box in the-attic. They were recog- sized immediately and, since they never had been given to any other church, Mrs. Huberta Nunn Wright of Beaumont, and Robert Read Nunn of Houston, had the vessels [replated] [uncertain] and refurbished and returned to the church as a memorial to Mrs. Corinne Nunn Corry, now dead, who was
