DISTRICT CENSUS SUPERVISOR

Editor Courler:

Many people have recently request- ed that [Tas] [uncertain] chairman of the Hous- ton [County"] [uncertain] Democratic. Executive committee, assist then in securing employment in the 1950 census [us] [uncertain] crow leaders, enumerators and clerks.

I have advised these friends of mine that Hon. Tom Pickett, M. C. House Office Building, Washington, D. C. has been instrumental fn securing the appointment of Hon, Joseph H. Roquemore, [124] [uncertain] Davis 8t. [Nacogdo-] jches, [uncertain] Texas, as district census super- visor. I have consistently informed my friends that Messrs, Pickett and Roquemore, and none other, have power and influence in the [naming,] [uncertain] of persons who will work in the en- suing census,

These gentlemen have been advised by my letter of January 12, [1950,] [uncertain] that many people were seeking [em-] [uncertain] [ployment] [uncertain] in the census and, that [1:] [uncertain] have advised all of them to [commun-] [uncertain] [icate] [uncertain] with Mr. Pickett and with [Mr.] [uncertain]

Roquemore. 4
