AGRICULTURAL MOBILIZATION
COMMITTEE REPORT

Why we need greater production of food and fiber in the coming year: Men in uniform eat more than civilians, and military kitchens must be backed up with supplies of seven to nine months' supply with seven to nine months' supply. The population in the United States is increasing at the rate of two and one-half million people a year. This means that each morning we have an additional 7,000 people to feed and clothe. People are consuming thirteen per cent more food than during the pre-war years. There are over 90 million head of cattle in the United States today. This is the greatest cattle population we have ever had.

Food can fight for freedom; it has made friends for the U. S. in foreign countries and must continue to do so. Abundant production can help to stabilize prices.

For these reasons farmers are being called upon for increased production. It is our problem to meet these increasing demands. Fifty years ago the production problem could have been solved by moving westward and plowing up more land. These needs today will have to be met primarily from higher yields on land now under cultivation. Adding to the problem will be shortages of some of the essentials for high production such as labor, fertilizer and some types of machinery.

National defense is every one's job! Meeting next year's production goals for food, feed and fiber is just as vital to our country's welfare as meeting defense production schedules for tanks, guns, bombs, B-29's and fighter jets. Abundant food production is a worthy goal under normal conditions. There is special need for a united effort in producing more food in 1952. Houston county's goals are 45,000 acres of cotton, 100,000 acres of corn and 2,000 acres of grain sorghums. Your county agricultural mobilization committee is depending upon the farmers of Houston county to meet these goals.

Copy Miller's back from visiting relatives and tell about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around. Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman kept saying "I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here here to milk a cow by hand any more."

The "Wear-Everywhere" Coat

Here's a Brown Wool coat that can go anywhere—whether it's shopping, the theatre or on a trip. The coat, featured in Companion magazine, has a round collar that fits snugly with a button-on tab at the neck. It comes in white, red, navy, and several shades of gray. Price, under $100. NEW HOME
DEMONSTRATION
CLUB ORGANIZED

A new home demonstration club was organized at Perryville January 29, 1952, at the home of Mrs. John Daniels.

Mrs. Laura Russell, home demonstration agent, was present and helped conduct the meeting. There were 10 members in the Perryville club. They are: Mrs. Price Brown, Mrs. Sam Elliott, Mrs. Elmer Sullivan, Mrs. Lee Wright, Mrs. John Daniels, Mrs. Will Lively, Mrs. J. V. Langham, Mrs. Bert Kelly, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Mrs. Maude Daniels. Visiting the new club was Mrs. Loye Cherry from the Augusta club.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Price Brown; vice-president, Mrs. John Daniels; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Sam Elliott; council delegate, Mrs. Sam Elliott; clothing demonstrator, Mrs. Elmer Sullivan; living room demonstrator, Mrs. Sam Elliott.

After refreshments were served to the group the meeting adjourned. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Lee Wright February 8 at 2 p. m.

The real power of business, DuPont said, is "the power to risk huge sums of money, running into millions, on the possibilities of a return; to undertake large-scale research projects well beyond the scope of less substantial enterprises; to create the productive capacity for those products which can be produced only on a large, mass-production basis."

SOME SUGGESTIONS
IF PLANNING
TO GIVE BLOOD

It is best to fast for four hours before giving blood with nothing except water or coffee without cream. But if you feel that you must eat, do not eat cream, mayonnaise, butter, milk, salad oil, bacon, ham, fatty meats, oily fish such as salmon, cod fish or mackerel, egg yolk, pork, fried food, gravy, nuts, coconut, chocolate ice cream, cheese or bananas.

For breakfast, I suggest toast without butter, fruit juice, fruit except bananas, and coffee without cream.

For lunch, any boiled or baked vegetables without butter, salt-pick or bacon grease for seasoning. Any fresh or canned fruit salad, except bananas, tea or coffee without cream, and plain or fruit jelly without cream.

Additional foods which might be used are: raw oysters, boiled shrimp, canned chicken soup (put in refrigerator to solidify fat and remove fat), dried prunes, figs, apricots or peaches.

DEMOCRACY WAS AGAINST FOREIGN ENTANGLEMENTS

Memory of man runneth not to the contrary when any and all Democratic platforms proclaimed that "We are unalterably opposed to entangling alliances with foreign countries."

President Wilson proposed such alliances, but left it to the Democratic party, and the party turned it down. It was in all Democratic platforms before the New Deal and the Fair Deal.

President Roosevelt, we believe, will say, kicked out the Democratic platform and inaugurated in its stead the New Deal. All can now see what the New Deal's entangling alliances have resulted in, if our right to speak freely is recognized and the making of our now is not threatened.

If they foresee what was coming, there is no wonder that the New Dealers changed the name to the Fair Deal.

Mr. Truman, Mr. President: Watch what you are saying. With officers and friends who let him down, and that he will not run again. A few months ago it seemed certain that the president would be able to name the candidate and that the convention would follow his lead automatically.

But now, an aggressive and powerful forces in the Democratic party are bitter at the president, his closest advisors and such cabinet members as McCarath and Snyder, within whose departments the scandals occurred.

An inter-party revolt against the white house may not occur on any great scale, but it is certainly possible. Some of the Kefauver backers may be counting on it. SPENDING TO GO
MERRILY ON

Washington, D. C.,
January 25, 1952.

Editor Courier:

The big news in Washington last week was the contents of the president's annual budget message. In merec last July, total expenditures were estimated at about $71 billion. The president's budget recommended expenditures for the year beginning next July at $145 billion more, or a total of $216 billion. This is more than twice as much money as was actually spent in the fiscal year which ended as the conflict in Korea began in 1950.

As has been the case for years, the biggest item in the new budget is the more than $51 billion for the armed forces. That sum is an increase of $11.4 billion over this year's spending. The military item is 60% of the entire budget.

Tom Pickett.

"JUST TO FILL UP"
SELDOM NEEDED

Nothing is more depressing in the newspaper business than to be engaged in an effort to use what copy we have on hand and then have some one offer us a long article to "help fill up our paper." It is true that we might have used it in place of something we already have, but the other is already made up in the type form for using and can't be very easily discarded for something else.

Most weekly newspapers are published on Thursday. They begin another paper on Friday, and when it is full, the long article just to fill up may come in. The article may be of considerable interest, and may have been used if received earlier, but the chances are that the editor has more copy already on hand than he can use and is already exasperated over what he is going to do with the surplus. And no publisher is very fond of the term "just to fill up."
