AND MAGNOLIAS

Agaln taking our [flernoon] [uncertain] ride Sunlay, we drove north to Grapeland and took the went farm-to-market paved road out of there, We had been over that road, with Its well-kept farm places, before. So we turned at the end of the pavement, retraced our steps, to Grapeland and turned northwest on the Rock [IH] [uncertain] community [parement.] [uncertain] This farm-to-market road penetrates the Grapeland [oll] [uncertain] field and" crosses the tall [hiile] [uncertain] of [the.] [uncertain] Rock [1111] [uncertain] community. When wo went down some of those steep hills, we) wondered if we would get hack up them, but we did at a forty-mile pace, The [areen] [uncertain] pines and magnolias help the view. There are some new houses and, on the whole, it [Is.a] [uncertain] drive worth taking.

We had heard of good farm-to market road extending southwest from Elkhart and ending In the Isaac Parker community, nine miles southwest of Elkhart. The Parker community be one, of the oldest In [Houston] [uncertain] or Anderson counties, Anderson having-been taken off of the north end of [Houston.] [uncertain] Driving to Elkhart, we turned [southweat] [uncertain] and at about seven or eight miles passed through what we guessed was a part of the Navarro Crossing [oll] [uncertain] field, of which the Rock [JEM] [uncertain] Chetd might [aleo] [uncertain] be called part.
