Every Dollar
of Tidelands Revenue Is Dedicated To
Our Public School Fund

JOIN THE MOVEMENT of Loyal Texans who demand Congressional action restoring this land to the Texas Public School Fund. Add your name to the growing list of patriotic Texans who are giving their support and $1.00 or more to finance the campaign which will put the true facts before the people of America. This is all we need to get their support of Congressional action.

A DOLLAR from every aroused citizen will enable The Statewide Tidelands Committee to show the people of other states what can happen to them and their state-owned lands and resources. You can help to enlist their aid and the votes of their congressmen.

This is not an oil company fight, as certain Federal Bureaucrats would have you believe. This is a PEOPLE'S FIGHT! Every man, woman and child in Texas can help win this fight in Congress by sending $1.00 or more and joining this grassroots movement.

Remember the TIDELANDS

In 1936 the battle cry was "Remember the Alamo." With that cry Texas won its independence and its tidelands property at San Jacinto.

These lands were retained by Texas under the solemn contract of annexation with the United States, which specifically provided "and State shall retain all vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits."

For over 100 years the Federal Government recognized that these lands belong to Texas. They are dedicated solely to the Texas Public School Fund.

Only after the lands became valuable did Federal officials seek to "betray" the contract of annexation.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in a 5-4 decision, took this case to the Supreme Court. The court's decision was a victory for Texas. The court ruled that the lands belong to Texas.

Our cry now should be "REMEMBER THE TIDELANDS!" as we appeal to Congress to remedy this injustice and restore our lands.

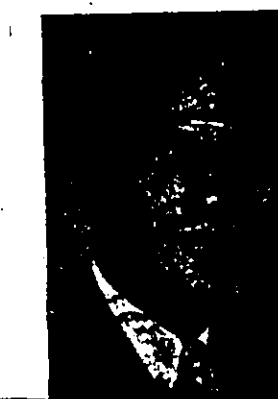

We can win by getting these facts before the people of every state and their elected representatives. The president is established for the loss of their submerged lands beneath their lakes, rivers, and other navigable waters if this decision is allowed to stand.

They will lose their fisheries, oyster beds, shell, kelp, mud, gravel, dolomite, shales and other improvements. They will lose their right to Congress if we can get the true facts before them. To enlist their help take money.

Every Texas citizen help do this by mailing this dollar today.

Remember the TIDELANDS

ENGAGEMENT OF GRACE ARLEDGE TO WILLIAM JORDAN JR.

By H. B. Milburn.

The engagement of Miss Grace Arledge to William L. Jordan Jr. was formally announced at a party Friday evening, given at the bride-elect's home in honor of Mrs. Andy Hinton of McPherson, a friend of the bride.

Mrs. Roy Arledge was hostess to the group of her daughter's school friends. Springtime flowers, daffodils, yellow gladioli, daffodils, and other flowers were used in decorating for the occasion.

The names of the betrothed couple were prominently displayed in a quilt case in which the first letter in each name was spelled out.

Miss Arledge is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Arledge of this city and of the late Roy Arledge. She is a graduate of Crockett High School and of Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jordan of this city, and a graduate of Crockett High School and of the University of Texas. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity, and is employed as a geologist for Humble. The date of the wedding has not been revealed.

At the conclusion of the evening's social event, light refreshments were served by the hostess.

RONALD BLACKMON PASSES AWAY

defaulted to Madisonville. Oakwood defeated Lataco. In the semi-finals, Lovelady won over Kennard and Madisonville defeated Oakwood. Grapeland won over Glover 38 to 17 to capture the consolation honors.

COUNTY LINE COMMUNITY ORGANIZES

A group of 55 people met Thursday night, February 27, in the home of Gladys Wright for the purpose of organizing for the Texas Rural Neighborhood Progress contest. Mr. T. C. Richardson, editor of the Farmer-Stockman, sponsors of the contest; Mr. C. V. Hanning and Mrs. Laura Russell, county agents, met with us to explain the rules and some of the benefits to be derived from the contest.

A film was shown of a rural community on the "before and after" contrast which was enjoyed by all.

Clyde Bedford was elected chairman, Geo. Gaines vice chairman, Donald Cunningham Jr., vice chairman, Mildred Williams, secretary and Mrs. Roy Hannon, secretary.

A meeting is called for Thursday night, February 28, at 7:30 in the home of Sam Casky. We urge every citizen in this community to be present. This meeting is for the purpose of assigning leaders for different groups of workers on projects. Especially is it our aim to furnish work and entertainment for our young people in their home community. We hope that every one will feel the need of their help in this contest in making a better place for us to live.

INSIDE PAGES NEED MORE ATTENTION

Bob Nicholson on Newspaper Makeup

Many newspaper publishers who have come to realize that the front pages of their newspapers are short-comers have tried to make them as typographically attractive and as readable as possible. They have spared no pains to present a good front page. However, these same publishers have done little or nothing to improve the inside pages.

The inside pages of a newspaper, since they carry the paid-for messages of the paper's advertisers, should be designed to attract and hold the reader's attention on par with the front page. Even if the publisher does not feel a strong obligation to his advertisers, the inside pages should be something more than a receptacle for jumped stories, trivial news reports, short films and the like. They should be considered as an integral part of the newspaper and they should be given as much care and thought as the front page.

Every page of a newspaper should display its news in such a way that the reader's eye will linger there more than momentarily. If this is not done, the reader may soon develop a habit of turning from page one to the sports page and then to the cinema. He will probably bypass some important stories and he will overlook most of the advertising. In time, he may find that his newspaper does not meet his needs and, too, the advertiser may discover that his ads are not getting the readership he expects.

In the first round, Lovelady, Buffaloe, Normange, Lataco and Oakwood had byes. In the first round, Lovelady defeated Glover 30 to 12. Lovelady advanced by default over Centerville. Madisonville defeated Grapeland.

LOUIS GORDON TO APPEAR HERE

A young Texas pianist-composer, who at 27 is already earning a major name for himself among the musicians of the southwest, will appear in Crockett on Thursday, March 6. He is Louis Gordon, and is being presented locally by the Crockett Municipal Concert Association as the second concert of this year's series.

A native of Beaumont, he received most of his pre-college training there, spending his summers at the University of Texas. He is a graduate of the famous Eastman School of Music and a pupil of the late Howard Hanson. In addition to his accomplishments as a pianist, Mr. Gordon is also a skilled composer.

Only last month, when Victor Alexander and the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra appeared in Beaumont, Gordon's latest composition was performed to great critical and audience approval. "Toujours home-overs" fairly rocked the hall with applause for "Concert Overture," the work by 27-year-old Gordon which opened the program. "This soloist, for one, was mighty impressed—and mighty proud of the boy, too, when at the insistence of Mr. Alexander and the audience, he shyly mounted the stage for a well-earned bow," wrote one of the critics.

The concert, scheduled to begin at 8:15, will be given at the Memorial auditorium.
