FARM OUTLOOK FOR 1932. gy Editorial by Tom Linder of Georgia. It fs very doubtful if anyone can, with any assurance, tell what the probable outcome is for agriculture a or anything clare in the light of world a and national conditions.

Those citizens of [40] [uncertain] years and more of age remember some of the things that occurred during the years following World War [1.] [uncertain] As concrete illustration, there was a town in Middle Georgia having j four banks. All of these banks had made money during [thr] [uncertain] years from 1916 until 1921. After that, the smallest bank failed.

The next largest bank took over its [aagets] [uncertain] and ynder- took to pay off [ite] [uncertain] creditors. Ax a result the second bank also failed. The third bank took over what remained of the [asacta] [uncertain] of the two defunct banks and as a result the third bank failed. The fourth bank being the largest tried to take [orer] [uncertain] the remnants of all three banks. As result of taking over there doubtful assets, coupled, with the depreciated value cf its own [anscts,] [uncertain] the fourth bank failed. A fine [community'] [uncertain] is an Middle [Georgia] [uncertain] was left without bank of any kind. That sorts to be what has [bappened] [uncertain] to the countries of the world. The nations of [uncertain] Great. [Hrttaln] [uncertain] is tottering to its fall. The United States, like the four banks in Middle Georgia, has undertaken to finance all of these [tottaringnations] [uncertain] and empires.

Ase result, the only sound nation Jeft on earth is very likely to go down in the ovainflation.

SOMETHING ABOUT EAST TEXAS COOKING

We may give without poetry, music [aud] [uncertain] art; We may five without conscience [aad] [uncertain] live without heart; We may [Live] [uncertain] without friends, we may but civilized man cannot live without cooky." Owen Meredith.

Of all cast Texan resources and assets, [OW,] [uncertain] cooking 1a high on the list Here home cooking 1s fine art. Ilvie we [atill] [uncertain] find flourishing in a few small [towne] [uncertain] the family style" hotel. There [Ptr] [uncertain] usually more than a [daten] [uncertain] different kinda of feed on the table. [Everybody] [uncertain] feels that he knows every- body clue and all Join in the [conver:].] [uncertain] action, including the wife or daughter of the proprietor who is waiting on the table.

There is country fried steak, fried chicken, also chicken with dumplings, roast beef, roast pork, ham, sweet potatoes, black-cyed peas, string beans, turnip greens, butter beans, okra, squash, biscuits, [curn] [uncertain] bread, sweet milk, buttermilk, four kinds of pie, three kinds of cake and candied apples. As you stagger away from the table the proprietor beams with pride.

George Sessions Perry in [bia] [uncertain] book [Texas—A] [uncertain] World in [Iteclf"] [uncertain] says that the frying pan killed more [ecttlers] [uncertain] than the Indidns in pioneer days here and [thet] [uncertain] Texas is still a frying par static."

An [eax,] [uncertain] Texas friend of mine says then when [smal]] [uncertain] town hotel moves from frame building into e brick building that something happens to the food. Maybe the Interest and sinking fund on the mortgage gets into it.

So, we [salote] [uncertain] the cast Texas anal town family style" hotel. Here no chef with [tal] [uncertain] white hat and a prime donna temperament spoil good food with some unholy goo" with a [forcign] [uncertain] name.
