Milburn, Reporting b 1 [dont] [uncertain] get a chance to talk" these days, but, so help me, through [thie]. 4 column] [uncertain] I can [tel!] [uncertain] you about the lovely spring suasion of the [Esst Texas):] [uncertain] i Council of Garden clubs, which was [Ee.] [uncertain] held in Crockett Wednesday, April 2. First of all, as a reporter I was [an):] [uncertain] f invited quest of the Magnolia Garden ia club and the Redbud Garden club, who were [hostesacs] [uncertain] for the convention; [1°] [uncertain] and 1 covered the convention from nine until the convention was overt.) [4] [uncertain] Thoroughly enjoyed every minute, and met and talked with quite a number inane of visitors from out of town. Thirty one clubs were represented r One hundred and thirty-three regis- H [tered] [uncertain] from out of town t The [carden clube] [uncertain] of [Crockett] [uncertain] did a magnificent fob of entertaining. Being hostesses for such a convention want a matter of club members just saying hokus-pokus, everything s ready for the convention!" The gar den clubs of this town worked and planned all year long to have this t convention. You [havent] [uncertain] forgotten about those 6,000 azaleas they made i house-to-house canvass to [acl),] [uncertain] have [yoa?] [uncertain] Or the clean-up campaign? Or the splendid work both clubs did in the planting of native shrubs at the [4] [uncertain] Davy Crockett Memorial park with Mrs. Dob Spence, Redbud Garden club member, diligently supervising [the] [uncertain] work with untiring" effort and [scal.)] [uncertain] Well all those things, while they were plan toward the permanent beautification of our city, were also, [plana!)] [uncertain] to be in readiness for the spring con- je mention of the East Texas Council all

Garden clubs which convened here:

i Wednesday. Hegiatration of visitors and [cuesta] [uncertain] began at nine at the Memorial build- be i Ing. An executive board meeting was t held at the C. N. Sullivan home at 913) Gollad from 9 to 10 a m and afterwards a coffer fur al visitors at the contention was given in the lovely and spacious home of the Sullivans The entire downstairs was [(thrown] [uncertain] open to the gracious [hoapitality] [uncertain] of the morning. Mrs. William [HI.] [uncertain] Denny i greeted guests at the door and [introrf duced guesta] [uncertain] to Mrs. C. N. Sullivan, i hostess of the home, Mrs. Byron t Bronstad of Kilgore, Mrs. Erbie Gria- f wold of Overton, Mrs. J. D. Wolealey Gucsta were Invited into the din- [1] [uncertain] ing rum by members of the Redbud Garden club and the Magnolia Garden club. Mrs. Gus Allen of Arp, [past}') [uncertain] councilor of the Eaast Texas [Council)!] [uncertain] of Ganten clubs and past state [treas urer] [uncertain] of Garden clubs, poured coffee. The refreshment table was covered with beautiful white imported linen cloth and had central table arrangement of white iris, white narcissus, white [anapdragons,] [uncertain] white stock and, daffodils in a huge and graceful sil-) [ver] [uncertain] basket. [Refreshments] [uncertain] were sweet rolls, pineapple cubes to be dipped in powdered sugar and coffee.

Flowers in formal line arrangement were used at vantage points throughout the reception rooms.

General assembly at the Memorial building began et 11 clock with Mrs. J. G. Waller, [preaident] [uncertain] of the Magpolia Garden [clab,] [uncertain] presiding. Rev.

Leatic LeGrand gave an invocation.

Mayor T. D. Mrs. Bron- [stad, countilor,] [uncertain] in asking for these reports first [eald] [uncertain] by hearing these [reporta] [uncertain] we shall learn a lot, for ou of these reports will come workable plans and an exchange of ideas for other garden club members to follow."

The [Magnolia Garden] [uncertain] club and the Hedtud Garden club of Crockett both turned in excellent reports on their years program of work.

A Dit of humor-constantly occurred during the hearing of the reports as!

time" was kept on length of [reporta] [uncertain] given. Naturally, as women will sometimes do, and as reports were read er given by club members throughout the district, over-time" in talking occurred frequently to the puod-natured exasperation of many [lelub] [uncertain] member who was giving the re-, port and [inapired] [uncertain] to tell all about their years program of work and who:
