The Courier has no personal feeling wt [ppainst] [uncertain] Senator Tom [Connally—per- gunally] [uncertain] or as a United States [sen-| ator.] [uncertain] The Courier realizes that in times gone by [Senater] [uncertain] Connally has bern one of the strongest men in the 4 United States [acnate.] [uncertain] In his younger days he always took the part of the rod [poople,] [uncertain] and [thia] [uncertain] does not mean to ray that he! [h@s] [uncertain] ever acted against the [7] [uncertain] people who fledted him in his older [Rem] [uncertain] days. He has served well, honorably and long. But we do may that the) retiring time has arrived. His op- [L 3] [uncertain] position tu the New Deals packing the supreme court was, in our [opinjon,] [uncertain] greatly to his credit. But he, has run too long with the New Deal, [bunch—the] [uncertain] bunch that discarded Democratic platforms and other Dem i [oerstic] [uncertain] principles, It might be said in bis favor that he had small chance to oppose them, and-that if be did

GOVERNMENT LAWYERS

[CANT] [uncertain] BPLIT LOYALTY.

Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath ts on slippery ground in allowing [lawyere] [uncertain] in the department of justice to do private practice of law on the side. These lawyers are paid, not retainer fees, but [anlaries] [uncertain] for full-time work. They are expected to represent the [gurnment,] [uncertain] not people or corpora- tons trying to get favors from the [corenment.] [uncertain] If department of justice salaries are not high [enough] [uncertain] to get the [fulltime] [uncertain] professional services of able lawyers, they should be raised. True, the gov- [ernment] [uncertain] lawyers are in constant de [mand] [uncertain] for outside fobs. They are wanted not so much for their ability as lawyers aa for their inside knowl- edge of the government, their con- tarts with officials, their political pull

Crockett Courier — April 17, 1952

When they accept such job, even in case when they do not work at them on government time, their loyalty is divided.

If a federal jobholder needs extra money and drives taxi during the evening, as some are [anid] [uncertain] to do, that might not impair his usefulness to the public. But when a government lawyer is also an attorney for those trying to get something from the gov- [ernment,] [uncertain] he is trying to serve two masters. The two allegiances don't jibe, in spite of Mr. McGrath's effort to reconcile [them.—Dallas] [uncertain] News.

TRUMAN AND CONGRESS

PROVIDE INFLATION.

In his Saturday Jackson [epicch] [uncertain] Gen. Douglas [MacArthur realised] [uncertain] that the people of this country do not understand an important point. Centralization of federal power has destroyed government of the people, by the people, for the people. Nine tenths of their tax burden is imposed by the federal government. CLOSE TO [ft.] [uncertain]

This country for more than [twolre] [uncertain] years had a rubber-stamp congress. For a cutpber-of court [suesions] [uncertain] we had a rubber-stamp supreme court. Milljona of people in this country bowed in split to That Great, Good Man in the White House." And millions of them atoll revere his name as the name of one [balf] [uncertain] way between a saint [acd] [uncertain] a genius. We came as close to an actual, working dictatorship that hundreds of details of our own private lives are still [eumebow] [uncertain] or other in the charge of the [buresocracy] [uncertain] at Washington.

The column is against all [thie.] [uncertain] It has been against it from the start of it in this country. But an American decree against dictators everywhere in the world would [iteef] [uncertain] be dictating. We haven't got that right and we [havent] [uncertain] got that power,

Of course, we can withhold gifts and aid to dictatorships. And that, in the main, we ought to do not before [thie] [uncertain]

GROWING TAX BURDEN,

The [federa] [uncertain] personal income tax was adopted in 1913, with rates ranging from 1 to 7 per cent. Today rates range from 22.5 to [8T] [uncertain] per cent. The corporation tax, when adopted in 1909, mounted to 1 per cent. Today it averages 60 per cent of corporations' earnings.
