[The obligatloN] [uncertain] of focal chambers of commerce in building better [Ameri- cun] [uncertain] allies and towns is emphasized by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, national federation of more than 3,000 [businesamens] [uncertain] organ-

D. A. Huley of Dallas, who on April 30 will complete his term as pres- dent of the Nationa) Chamber, has [epent] [uncertain] much time during the past year visiting local member [organisations.] [uncertain]

He urges wide support for them In their community programs.

I cannot remember a time," says he,
when our chambers were so well managed, s0 alert and so active. But we need still more active interest by business leaders. We need the service of leaders who personify business as a good neighbor in a town that is crowing and developing. We need men who personify the American eco- [nomic] [uncertain] system as a warmly human in- [stitution] [uncertain] based on individualism and community cooperation.

There js no community in America that cannot be made a better place to live. The backdrop for it exist. In the past, chambers of commerce hare successfully launched hospitals, have created playgrounds, reconstructed school systems, have even [bullt] [uncertain] col- leges and have actually created cities.

It te almost a law of nature that the bigger government becomes, the more corrupt and conscienceless it becomes.

A wasteful government Inevitably becomes corrupt [government—as] [uncertain] re- cent sordid revelations of scandals and graft in [high] [uncertain] places have proved. MORAL PRINCIPLES AND FOREIGN POLICY

Uy Towner Phelan, Vice? President, 1

St. [Louie] [uncertain] Umon Trust Company. 1

[Today, Ametocan] [uncertain] foreign policy is a dominant influence upon our do-' [meatic] [uncertain] economy. It [bas] [uncertain] created permanent emergency which serves as an excuse for an ever-greater [oie tration] [uncertain] of power in Washington. P fact, had we planned it that [wey."] [uncertain] we could not have devised a shrewder plan for gradual destruction of our liberties and transformation of our): federal republic into a, totalitarian stale masquerading ae 8 democracy.

American foreign policy since the party 1940s Is a story of tragic blunder and [disastroc] [uncertain] failures. There are two basic causes. [(ne] [uncertain] Is the pro- Communist climate of liberal" [opinlon] [uncertain] in the thirties and forties, Aa James A.
