Miss LeMay was graduated from Baylor University and is teaching in Baytown. She was a member of the Peer social club at Baylor. Mr. Spain is a student in the University of Texas Medical School in Galveston. He was graduated from the Rice Institute.

Will Live in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shaver of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to James R. Cecil, son of Mrs. Helen Cecil of Houston. The marriage was taken at the Methodist church, here, on April 12, with the Rev. Leslie LeGrand officiating. Mrs. Cecil wore a blue organza dress and her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Cecil was employed by Calaway's when he formerly lived here. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil will reside in Houston, where Mr. Cecil is employed by the Houston Post.

AREA RECEIVES HEAVY RAINFALL

Crockett, Houston county and surrounding area received heavy rainfall Tuesday, after a rainy week-end preceding. The rains should put good moisture in the soil for crops and pasture grass later. In the meantime, farmers were delayed indefinitely in planting plans. Groveton received a terrific downpour. A traveler reported water a foot deep in some streets there Tuesday afternoon. Streams were flooded with the runoff of the water, but the Courier had heard of no roads being blocked by high water Wednesday morning. Hurricane Bayou rose rapidly Tuesday afternoon as a result of the downpour.

white, blue and yellow, used as a canopy. Mexican scenes and drawings were used as decorations on the walls. The refreshment table was centered with an attractive market scene of amaranth and colorful balloons massed in the arrangement. The table was laid with a white cloth which had the brilliant rainbow colors of fringe falling gracefully from the top of the table to the floor. The menu consisted of mock tamales, beanstaka (of stuffed celery), Mexican rocks (olives), Mexican tortitas (twisties), tequila (lees) and pecan pie.

A program followed which included a short play, "A Comedy of Errors," with Ray Freeman, Patricia Northcutt, Bonnie Murray and Barbara Manning in the cast; a song, "Mexicali Rose," by Christine Turner; a short talk, "Dreaming in the Sun," by J. W. Jackson, master of ceremonies; a toast to the sponsors by Guen Kials, and a toast to Our Almas Mater by Dee Allen. After the grand march, dancing followed for the evening. Mrs. Mae Rellas and Earle Luck were sponsors.
