Prices keep going [up—indeed] [uncertain] there is evidence that Washington would be horribly scared If prices started go- ing down, It is even worried when prices teeter up and down as if they might slide off.

Wages go up when people get out en the [aldewalk] [uncertain] and carry placards up and [down—anh] [uncertain] su we have strikes. Meanwhile, government solemnly em- [ploya] [uncertain] a large flock of people who are

PRICE DANIEL SEEKS

CONGRESS WITH POWER.

In [hia Waco] [uncertain] speech as a candidate fur Uhe Unlted Statea senate, Prict

Daniel again took a [poaitien] [uncertain] that leaves no question where he stands. The attorney general is the antiad- ministration [apukraman] [uncertain] for Texas in" this race. His lection will [guarantec] [uncertain] that Texas, not corrupt Washington, is represented in the senate.

One point of the five which Daniel Tinted as the vital needs of constitutional government at the [natlona!] [uncertain] level [deacrves] [uncertain] more than ordinary [sttention.] [uncertain] He insisted that [Congress—] [uncertain] as the peoples [clected] [uncertain] representatives must recapture and exercise the pol- icy-making powers assigned to it by the [conatitution."] [uncertain]

This ia the cornerstone of the aur- [vival] [uncertain] of representative government in this country. It is the answer to [Preaident Trumans] [uncertain] arrogant assertion of inherent unlimited powers. For, if the president is humored in that dic- [tatorial] [uncertain] ambition, the lawmaking pow- [ers] [uncertain] of congress would be of no more value than the policy-making Power which either cowardly or [ebeequious] [uncertain] congress have surrendered in turn to beth Roosevelt and [Truman.—] [uncertain]
