MORGANS BUILDING MADISONVILLE [T0.] [uncertain] FEATURE QUONSETS

Appointment of Morgans building Co of Madisonville as an authorized dealer for the famous lines of Quonset buildings in Madison and adjoining counties was announced this week.

The announcement was made by John F, McComb, president of the McRan Company, Houston, [distréators] [uncertain] of the economical all [stec!.,] [uncertain] arch shaped structures for [farma,] [uncertain] indus- trial and [coromercial] [uncertain] use.

McComb pointed out that many farmers now want to store their cot- ton and grains on their farms, holding their crops until they have good mar- [ket] [uncertain] prices. A [considérable aumber] [uncertain] of farmers in the Gulf Cosst-Houston area did this last fall, and, as a re- [sult,] [uncertain] secured a substantial increase jn profits over what they would have [tyealizet tadthey] [uncertain] sold at harvest ti

Raymond Morgac, owner of Mow gas Building Company, said [Quonset] [uncertain] buildings are approved by CCC for on-the-farm cotton and grain storage, and can be financed through the P. M. A up to 85 per cent. Mor- gan brought out, that under this plan the farmer has five years to pay; his. Interest rate ls 4 per cent and [hla] [uncertain] first payment is due January 31, [11958." ] [uncertain] Also of interest ls the fi-

[jnancing] [uncertain] plan whereby a farmer may buy any Quonset costing up to $3,000 with no down payment and have three l years in which to pay.
