ELECTION CODE CHANGES ARE EXPLAINED

June 30, [1952.] [uncertain] Crockett Courter: The Texas Election Code was adopted In 1961 and makes many changes in our election procedure. On account of teas changes It ts my Intention to write a lettetT each week prior to the [fortheoming] [uncertain] Democratle Primary election in order that the public may be informed as to many matters which may be of [asalatance] [uncertain] In voting. The first matter to be [conskiered] [uncertain] la absentee valuing. [Meany chaoges,] [uncertain] have been made In the law regulating absentee votes, but only a few [matters}] [uncertain] need be [conakiered] [uncertain] by the [alectur. The}] [uncertain] majority of the changes have to [do,] [uncertain] with the handling of the ballot after it has been marked and delivered to), the county clerk.

It must be understood at the outset), that the county clerk le governed by strict rules of law, and that he will apply the law to the best of his abil-) [ity.] [uncertain] He will not seek to help or bin-, [der] [uncertain] any candidate or elector, and will endeavor to treat all alike, and fairly. Such Is [hia] [uncertain] lawful duty.

All those desiring to cast [absentes] [uncertain] ballots should have their poll tax [recelpta,] [uncertain] or exemption certificates [(if] [uncertain] any be required by law) available,

The voter should either write to the county clerk, or go to the county clerk, and ask for an absentee [baljot,] [uncertain]

If a written request gore to the county clerk he will mail to the voter an application for absentee ballot. [This] [uncertain] [apptication] [uncertain] must be filled out and signed, ard the [pol]} [uncertain] tax receipt or exemption certificate attached to it, and) mailed to the county clerk. The [appiikations naw] [uncertain] In the hands of the county clerk have printed on them an affidavit to be used in case the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate have been lost or mislaid. This application for absentee ballot must also be accompanied by a [certificale] [uncertain] by [lieeneed] [uncertain] physician that the [voler] [uncertain] is [exk] [uncertain] of physically unable to go to the polls and vote. Upon receipt of the application and the supporting documents, the poll tax receipt or the exemption certificate, of [affidarit] [uncertain] in lew [therof,] [uncertain] and the physicians certificate, the county clerk wilt mail le the voter a [peckage] [uncertain] containing the ballot and envelope in which it ia to be returned to the county clerk. If the voter is physically unable to go to the county clerk's office he should go there with his poll tax receipt at exemption certificates, if any, and there request an absentee ballot.

He will be handed an application therefor which he will complete, including the affidavit of loss of poll tax receipt and exemption certificate if necessary; and hand same to the county clerk who will then deliver a ballot to the [voter] [uncertain] who will in person, or with his witness if physically handicapped to the extent that he cannot mark the ballot personally, and in the office of the [county] [uncertain] clerk, mark the ballot [and] [uncertain] deliver same to the county clerk who will deposit it in a ballot box and the voter will place the stub in a [etab] [uncertain] box, [juat] [uncertain] as for voting at the [rvguler] [uncertain] time and place." This will complete the voting [prpcesa] [uncertain] so far as the voter is concerned

The exemption certificate mentioned in [thle] [uncertain] letter is not required of those over 60 years of age; it is required only of people who [reskie] [uncertain] in [ritlee] [uncertain] of 10,000 of more population.
