RALPH MATHER ELECTED LEGION COMMANDER HERE

Ralph L. Mather was elected commander of Brantford-English post 134, American Legion, at the regular meeting of the post Thursday night at the Legion building. He will succeed J. H. Renick. Other officers elected Thursday night include: Peter Huff, first vice commander; Nathan Shaver, second vice commander; J. H. Renick, adjutant; Jack Ferguson, sergeant at arms; David Cook, historian; Rev. A. B. Moore, chaplain; Harvey Layne, service officer; and Ernest Bennett, finance officer. Randolph Cook, William Huff and Frank Crockett were re-elected trustees. The new officers will probably be installed at the post meeting on August 14.

Among delegates named to the department convention in Dallas August 10 are Ralph L. Mather, J. H. Renick, Leo H. Williams, Roy Selman, Terry Burton, Frank Bush, David Cox, Ernest C. Hale, J. W. Arledge, Harvey Layne, Carroll T. Herold, Carl H. Hartz, W. J. May, Alvin Hall, Randolph Cook, James E. Ellis, Jack Ferguson and John W. Tamm.

James Frank Adams gave the post report on Boy's State, which he attended in Austin in June. He was sponsored by the post. Adams was nominated for "chief justice of the court of criminal appeals," but lost to the appointing party. He was later elected "county judge."

A committee to discuss development of a baseball park in Crockett was appointed by the commander. Named were James L. Adams, Brother Ben Smith and W. H. Holscomb Jr.

It was announced that the post membership reached an all time high in 1951, with 267. Of the number 267, 105 are 15 days or more in the post.

Harvey Layne reported on the division 11 convention held in Houston recently. He said that invitation of Division Commander B. B. McFarley to hold the 1952 division convention in Crockett was accepted.

Thomas Jefferson Aiken was born in Brantford, Ontario, Canada, December 4, 1874. His father was John D. Aiken and his mother Mrs. Mary Aiken. He was the second of six children; the Crockett editor being the eldest. Tom attended public school in Brantford and in Henderson. He did his first newspaper work as the office of an uncle, John M. S. and Rev. O'Leary M. S. Mr. D. H. Harris, now deceased, and officiating. Interment was in the Brantford cemetery.

Joe Fark was born in Indiana, Texas, near Crockett July 9. He was elected July 9 at 8 p. m. in the Crockett Memorial Chapel by Father Julian. Funeral services were held July 10 at 9 a. m. at the Catholic church. Burial was in the Brantford cemetery. He was a member of the Catholic church.
