LIONS RECOMMEND
PASSAGE OF BOND ISSUE

After a clear and concise [explanathon] [uncertain] on the present [atrect] [uncertain] paving, and waler and [eeweruge] [uncertain] situation in [thle] [uncertain] city by Roy Garner, [clty] [uncertain] council man, the Liona" Club of Crockett, at their regular Tuesday meeting, unanimously approved and recommended the passage of the proposed bond Issue.

It [waa] [uncertain] pointed out that Crockett had a [jow] [uncertain] tax valuation for s town of [ita] [uncertain] site and which, in reality, amounts to about $1.60 tax rate: The proposed bond [issue'] [uncertain] would rale [thls] [uncertain] amount that the taxpayer would hare to pay about $Al. That ia: [Inatead] [uncertain] of the taxpayer paying $1.50 it is expected the rule would advance to $2.00.

The proposed spending of mole received from the bond Issue includes $140 thousand dollars for sewerage; $60 thousand dollar, will go for water improvement, and $100 thousand dollars for street improvement. The males problem is inadequate sewerage for the city.

[Improvements] [uncertain] and repair work will be In [sll sectlona] [uncertain] of the city. At:

present there are 1727 water and sewerage connections. Only 1200 of this number have sewerage connec- [tions,] [uncertain] which, In itself, points to the [dite] [uncertain] need to improve [thia] [uncertain] situation as a health hazard within the city.

[Expansion] [uncertain] of the sewer system takes in Mary Allen College and the north section which takes in Boone addition to the Alto [highwsy~] [uncertain] From
