Editor Courier eos [Sn] [uncertain] view nf Governor [Stevensons!] [uncertain] agreement with Preaident [Truman}] [uncertain] against the [atate] [uncertain] of [Texan] [uncertain] on tidelands ownership, I cannot and will not vote for him for president of the [United] [uncertain] States.

Governor Stevensons statement an endorsement of the means and [manser] [uncertain] by which the tidelands have been stolen by the federal government from the Texas Public Schoo fund, It indicates that he would follow the means by which one man, the pres- [Ueut] [uncertain] of the United [Btates,] [uncertain] has twice prevented majority of congress from returning these lands in accordance with the solemn agreement by which Texas [entared] [uncertain] the Union. Under these circumstances, a vote for Governor [Stevenson] [uncertain] would be a [wote] [uncertain] against our own state and [againat] [uncertain] eur own Public [Schowl] [uncertain] fund. I cannot and [wil]] [uncertain] not cast [auch] [uncertain] a vote, and I do not soc how any loyal Texan can do so. The [Texas] [uncertain] tidelands were won at the Rattle of San Jucinto. They were retained under the Annrzation agreement between the United Statea and the Republic of Texaa, and were dedi-).
[cated] [uncertain] to oar Public School fund. For over [une] [uncertain] hundred years, the federal government recognized that the property belonged to our abate.
After it), became valuable, [President] [uncertain] Truman directed that quit be filed against our state, and a divided Supreme court [(by] [uncertain] a vote of 4 to 3) refused to admit evidence and decided [againat] [uncertain] Texas on a new theory of law by which the [federal] [uncertain] government can seize private property as well on [atate] [uncertain] property without [cumpenastion.] [uncertain] I have fought against this [reizurr] [uncertain] in the courts and in Texas vote for a presidential candidate who, in advance, says that he favors the use of a presidential veto to prevent so majority of congress from [reajonng] [uncertain] the property and the principles of law In other words, 1f a majority of the people of [Texas] [uncertain] vote for Mr.

from Texans themselves that We do net really Relieve this property to be ours, or that we ally do not object very [uncertain] be known just how strongly they [fee]] [uncertain] about the tidelands [jaaue] [uncertain] and whether they are willing to continue the fight or give it pp os a sacrifice the altar of party loyalty.

[eae] [uncertain] As for me, [I] [uncertain]
