PARADE HIGHLIGHTS OPENING OF COUNTY FAIR

By H. D. Milburn.

Houston county's 1952 fair parade was a huge success. The parade got under way promptly at 10:30 Tuesday morning. Lined up along the curb in the entire downtown business section were men, women, children, and visitors from a radius of 75 miles, who came to witness the mile and a half long parade.

The color bearers preceded the parade. Riding in the official car were "Phry" Wood, representative of Houston county; Senator Neville Coleman of Navarro and Austin, and Jack Bales, president of the fair board. Senator Coleman and Jack Bales rode atop an open car to greet Houston county citizens and visitors from all over.

Seven high school bands stepped out smartly and briskly in October's bright weather that was turning just right for a fair parade. High school bands represented were: Lovelady High school band, Grapeland High school band, Elkhart High school band, Huntsville High school band, and the two Crockett bands.

Ten or more lovely and attractive floats added beauty and color to the parade. The parade was judged by many as the best parade that Houston county has had since the centennial parade held back in 1937.

The Boy Scouts troupe, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownie troops were carrying groups of youngsters which emphasized the importance of youth leadership and training that is carried out through these activities.

In line of parade were various commercial vehicles and machinery, a national guard unit, a group of happy bicycle riders, twelve or more horseback riders, and the Shoe Shop jockey with a little of everything on it, and Tom Sherrod himself driving the four-wheeled carry-all, and clowning a bit as he hurriedly drove along in the path of the parade.

The parade committee had as their chairman Albert Brewer, with C. N. Sullivan and Bill Perdue as co-chairmen.

JOHN DOWDY GOES TO WASHINGTON

Athens, Texas, October 10, 1952.

The Crockett Courier, Crockett, Texas.

Dear Editor:

I have submitted my resignation as district attorney to Governor Allan Shivers, effective October 15. In the morning I will start to Washington.

In this connection, I wish you would quote from me:

"I have greatly enjoyed serving as district attorney of this district and deeply appreciate the confidence of the people. I regret leaving this position, but go to a higher service where I hope to continue to merit your confidence by the same faithful efforts in your behalf as your congressman."

Sincerely,
John Dowdy.

IN HARVEST SEASON GRAPELAND REAPS A LOT

By Hattie Belle Milburn.

North Houston county deserves a great big hand from every one on the wonderful report that has been turned in on the substantial incomes which were derived this year from their versatile farm crops and which amounted to more than $2 million. Truck farming crops, $80,000; corn and feed, $200,000; cotton, $400,000; plums, $100,000; castor beans, $120,000; peas, $100,000; watermelons, $100,000; and livestock, about $1 million. At the peanut festival in Grapeland Friday, October 10, these facts were publicized.

North Houston county is truly a wonderful example to other counties of showing a way to bring about a better day by giving more time to tilling the soil, and more thought to diversified farm methods.

We looked back to a Crockett Courier dated January 27, 1923, and found this poem which best suits our thoughts of North Houston county during their harvest season of the year and when nature is high and going higher! The captions in this poem read something like this:

The Problem Solved.

"Now stop that grumbling for the fault's your own; You expect to reap where you haven't sown."

"When rats are high— It applies to me to diversify. I would be the same and easy way To bring about a better day."

"In a land where opportunities dwell" With corn in the crib and chickens in the yard, With meat and the smoke-house and tubs of lard, With butter on the table and honey in the jug, Think you you won't see too high. For you'll be smiling—won't have to buy!"

Meet "Mum" Gibson.

Blind missionary from San Antonio, Texas.

She averages about 20 revivals a year and "tributes on an average of two thousand tracts monthly, and her correspondence averages 50 letters monthly. She leaves friends wherever she goes."

"Mom" does not have a seeing-eye dog, that is the four-legged kind, but you will hear her refer to her "pooch." This is her comment on this helper:

The Lord blessed me with a competent secretary who is also my attendant to the revival. He is worth $200 per month to me, but compensates by gladly accepting 10,000 blessings daily. He is twenty-one years young and his name is Charles F. W. Greene."

When "Mom" sings you feel the warmth of her song and thrill at her happiness, which is detected in both her singing and her piano playing. Throughout "Mom's" 26 years of married life, she and her husband,

Dr. D. M. Gibson, have shared their home with 42 brothers. These lives could stand alone in the faith of the "Lord" Jesus Christ when they left this home. These two Christian people spent nearly a week in my home as my guests and I have never enjoyed such Christian fellowship; and they have been an inspiration to my life. If we but had more people like them, this old world would be a better place in which to live. We hope they will come to our fair city again soon.

LIONS CLUB HOLDS TUESDAY MEETING

By Hattie Belle Milburn.

At the regular Tuesday meeting of the Lions Club, Senator Neville Coleman, honorary member of the Crockett Lions club, was an honor guest. Senator Coleman was also in Crockett Tuesday to participate in the Houston county fair by riding in the parade as an honored guest.

Rev. Guy Wilson of Huntsville was introduced as guest speaker at the Lions luncheon Tuesday. Rev. Wilson dwelled at length on "Pertinent Facts That Are Related to Human Life and Development." He said that a lot of people worship "bigness" and "strength," but that it doesn't get the job done. He reminded his listeners that there was a universal wish to pass beyond oneself; to transcend the ordinary, so to speak; that people thirst for knowledge; always, and that this thirst for knowledge is what they must first know where the goal points are; that one of the first things desired is to learn how to get along with people; to learn how to have unity with people; that one must go through class, rule, church, school, race or creed to unity of service for the first time since the human race.

While Athens will be rated a solid favorite to win, we don't think the Bulldogs will surrender without putting up a real effort against Coach Grove. Walker's charges, a powerful crowd of Crockett rowers will likely follow the team to Athens Friday night.

DAUGHTER OF TEXAS PATRIOT BURIED HERE

Funeral services were held here Tuesday for Mrs. Margaret Josephine Gossett Newton, whose family resided in Texas while it was a part of Mexico.

She died at her home in Galveston Monday. Mrs. Newton was buried in Glenwood cemetery here, where the Texas Centennial Commission has a monument in honor of her father and grandfather.

Mrs. Newton's grandfather, Elijah Gossett, was a neighbor of David Crockett in Tennessee. They finally moved to Houston county, then a part of Nacogdoches county, in 1833, and settled on Hurricane bayou near the present site of Crockett.

Her father, Andrew Edwards Gossett, built a cabin on the hill that is now occupied by Mary Allen College of Crockett. He and his father served under Gen. Sam Houston and returned to Houston county after the Battle of San Jacinto.

When the county was organized in 1837 and the city of Crockett was incorporated in the same year, Mrs. Newton's father donated the land for the townsite, and was given the privilege of naming both the county and the county seat. The county was named after the general under whom he and his father served, and the town was named for the former Tennessee neighbor who had spent the night with the family while on the way to his death at the Alamo.

Mrs. Newton was born in what is said to be the first white-wooded house built in the Republic of Texas. It still stands and is now owned by Ruth Taylor.

LOVELADY READING CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING

The Lovelady Reading Club held their regular meeting October 3 in the home of Mrs. Will T. Bruton at Lovelady. Mrs. T. A. Little served as chairman in the absence of Mrs. Char. L. Rich. Following the roll call, and reports of various committees, the business session was closed and the books exchanged.

Mrs. Will Bruton introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. J. E. H. Gordon, who talked on "Art in Our Schools."

BULLDOGS TO ATHENS FRIDAY IN FINAL NON-TITLE TILT

The Crockett High Bulldogs will go to Athens Friday night for their final non-conference football game of the 1952 season.

While Athens will be rated a solid favorite to win, we don't think the Bulldogs will surrender without putting up a real effort against Coach Grove. Walker's charges, a powerful crowd of Crockett rowers will likely follow the team to Athens Friday night.
