CORONATION OF QUEEN BIG FEATURE
OCTOBER 30

The coronation of the queen will be held in a beautiful court of splendor Thursday night, October 30, in the Crockett High School Gym. Miss Carolyn Hays will be crowned as queen and George Smith (Hubb) Cook will be the king. Carolyn Hays and George Smith are sophomores. The prince and princess will be Bob Mills Griffin and Bobbie Jo McCrumm, first graders, from the elementary school. A runner up for the prince in the elementary school was Lewis Cook, Jeff Davis and Chris Voss. The half will be hereditary. Eugene McElroy will serve as the court jester. Dukes and duchesses are members of the elementary school and are: Gary Patton and Deanna Denny, second grade; Melba McBride and Wade Sullivan, third grade; Richard Cook and Lewis Cook and Margaret Lynn LeGrand, fifth grade; Tony Ellis and Gerald Hanson, sixth grade; Craig Sims and Jaynele Alinder, seventh grade; Phil Warner and Gerald Gene Ellis, eighth grade.

The coronation parade will start promptly at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the line of march will be through the downtown area. The parade will be led by the junior band, and promises to be the biggest and best ever.

Cocooness booths will open immediately after the parade and the coronation booths will be on the elementary school campus. The coronation of the queen will be held in the high school gym at 7:30.

JOHN A. MURCHISON
87 YEARS OLD
DIED AT ATHENS

John A. Murchison of Athens, 87 years of age and a retired grocery merchant, passed away at Athens Monday, October 27. He had a number of relatives living in Crockett, including S. L. Murchison, Mrs. J. S. Wooters, Miss Minnie Craddock, the former Bartlett, daughter of the late Mrs. George Cook, who was the former Hallett Murchison before marriage, and Mrs. George Denny. He also leaves quite a number of relatives in Grapeland. His wife is the former Mrs. Flora Gause Patton of Crockett before her marriage to Mr. Murchison. He also leaves a number of children to mourn his passing. He was the last living child of Daniel Murchison, who was tax collector of Crockett in 1851, 1852, 1853 and 1854. At that time taxes were paid in specie, that is, either silver or gold. At that time there were no banks in that county, and he was the collector who collected the taxes. John A. Murchison was buried at Athens Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

TWO CARS OVERTURN
NEAR CROCKETT
DURING WEEK-END

Two vehicles overturned on highway near Crockett during the week-end, report Highway Patrolmen John Haynie and Ben Monk. Saturday night about 7:30 o'clock a pickup truck, owned by Leon L. (Buddy) Anderson, went out of control on highway 42, 42 miles south of Crockett, and knocked down six highway posts on the left side of the highway, struck a small culvert and rolled over on the pavement. Considerable damage to the vehicle is reported, but no injuries.

About 1:30 a. m. Monday David Lincal Martin of Rt. 4, Palestine, apparently went to sleep while driving 24 miles east of Crockett on highway 2. Martin, 37 and an oil mill worker, was traveling toward Crockett. His car left the pavement on the left side and turned over on its side. Considerable damage to the vehicle is reported, but no injuries.

ASSIGNED TO
"A" BATTERY
FIELD ARTILLERY

Fort Lewis, Washington, October 25, 1952—Sergeant Jesse D. Williams, son of Mrs. Minnie Olla Williams of Rt. 1, Box 24, Crockett, has just been assigned to "A" Battery, 54th Field Artillery Battalion, Fort Lewis, Washington, as a gunner on a 105 mm Howitzer.

After graduation from the Crockett High School, Crockett, where he majored in physics and played basketball, he went to work for Mr. J. B. Williams as a farmer.

He entered the service of June 14, 1946, and after completing basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, he was assigned to the 7th AAA Signal Battalion as a gunner. In September he went to the Far East command his unit. After 12 months he was sent back to the states and assigned to the 54th Field Artillery Battalion, Fort Lewis, Washington.

Several feature stories appeared in the Grapeland hospital.
