BATTERY B RATED SATISFACTORY BY INSPECTOR

Battery B, 133rd Field Artillery, Inspector National Guard unit, was given a clean O. K. by Major Roy of the Inspector General's Department last Friday night. The battery has been on probation due to low strength and poor attendance, but now has the probation completely removed.

Attendance percentage has steadily increased the past twelve months and assigned strength has increased from a low of 31 men and 3 officers to the present strength of 12 men and 4 officers. Major Roy warned members of the battery that attendance must yet be improved and that it must be kept high.

Capt. Revis L. Barrett, battery commander, states that three and possibly four more enlisted men of the battery are to be commissioned as second lieutenants within the next five months. Present waiting lists include that approximately 15 more members will be sworn into the battery within the same period.

The battery will depart for summer encampment on June 29 and expects to have 40 enlisted men and 7 officers in attendance for the two weeks field training.

Major Roy was very much impressed and pleased with the excellent turnout and exceptional interest shown by local citizens. "It's the best I have seen anywhere," he declared. The inspecting officer was accompanied on his trip here by Major J. C. Gaston, 133rd Battalion commander, Major Dorey, T. Kuebler, battalion executive officer; Major Yates, battalion instructor; Capt. Lee, battalion S. S. and Sgt. Woods, assistant battalion instructor, all of Corsicana.

Each reporter wrote a news article on the meeting, and they were read and discussed.

The ten ladies present at this meeting were Mrs. C. C. Malone, Mrs. F. H. Curran, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Jan Cook, Mrs. W. H. Alldredge, Mrs. Ed McGee and Mrs. Odell Shaver from El Paso, Mrs. Bill Huff, Mrs. Walter Dorey, T. Kuebler, battalion executive officer; Major Yates, battalion instructor; Capt. Lee, battalion S. S. and Sgt. Woods, assistant battalion instructor, all of Corsicana.

RECOLLECTIONS OF YEARS GONE BY

Galveston, Texas, January 10, 1953. Mr. W. W. Aiken, Editor Crockett Courier, Crockett, Texas.

Dear Mr. "BUD": I know you are a very busy man, and hate to impose on you, but you will see why I had no other course.

I have no birth certificate, and they were not issuing them at time of my birth or if they were, they were burned when old courthouse burned.

I still receive the Courier, (sent to my mother, Mrs. J. A. Newton, who passed away October 6, 1952), and notice you run a column "62 Years Ago."

I was born November 9, 1890, a little over 62 years ago, at our old home 2 miles east of the courthouse. We moved into town when I was 2 years old. I am hoping that in the Courier for the week including November 9, 1950, there may be some mention of this.

I need a birth certificate in order to get poll tax exemption, also for getting a job, and later for old age pension.

I will deeply appreciate it if you can find time to look this up, and furnish me a statement so I can get birth certificate.

I enjoy the Courier very much, and was very moved to hear of the death of your brother, Tom. He and I were great friends. He Jack Bessley Jr. and I once had a 3-piece "band" and would practice on Jack's upstairs porch, and occasionally serenaded the neighbors to their discomfort. "I played" (!) the snare drum.

With very best regards, I remain Yours sincerely, Andrew J. Newton.

2012 Ave. P, Galveston, Texas. (P. S. Please note new address.) P. S. 2—Any expense you incur, I will cheerfully pay.
