A LICK AND A PROMISE.

The first issue of the Courier was published on January 30, 1890, or 63 yours ago, under the editorship of the lamented W. B. Page.

The present editor took over in 1808 and has continued to operate [ibe] [uncertain]Courier since that time, serving the people of Crockett and Houston coun- ty [eed] [uncertain] surrounding [teritars.] [uncertain]That the Courier must have met with some success in its endeavors and some approval from its patrons! Ag attested by the fact that the bual- gem has been able to continue [unhe kmtertuptedly] [uncertain] through all these years. [Sates] [uncertain] We still have on our mailing list some of the [origina] [uncertain] readers, who read the first issue back in 1890. The longsupport of these good friends ls deep- ly appreciated. The Courler will continue itspoly [aan] [uncertain] of giving the best service to its read- [ers,] [uncertain] advertisers, patrons and friends ss generally, consistent with the times [aad] [uncertain] with good business and newspaper practices. For all the many favors extended ws over the many years the Courier has been published we extend our thanks eeThe present editor, born and reared in Rusk county, came to Crockett 65 years ago to [cnter] [uncertain] the employ ofMr, Page, whom he succeeded in bual-peas and to whorl he owes touch for am y success attained. Any failure to come up to expectations may be laid st the door of this editor, We hope eur readers will continue to be tol- [erant] [uncertain] with us, excusing our short- comings and aiding us to achieve our ambition of giving Crockett and Hous- tee county a
