JAMIE CLEMENTS HAS REPORT [FROM] [uncertain] THE LEGISLATURE

The first big [ficht] [uncertain] on the floor [orccured] [uncertain] this week when House Bil was introduced by Representative A. D. Duwner of Center, This measure" provides that no candidate may [bei] [uncertain] filed by more than one [politica]) [uncertain] party, In Texas. The Croas [Filing™] [uncertain] bill [was}] [uncertain] reported favorably from the committee on [clections] [uncertain] by a twelve to [cight] [uncertain] majority, but when [preacnied] [uncertain] to the floor, was re-referred to that com) [mittee tovbe] [uncertain] taken up with other amendments to the election code. House Hill 3 entails [Governor] [uncertain] Shivers" program which calls fur a 10 per cent [inerrase] [uncertain] in teachers" salaries and pre- video for the increase of taxes in the" jock) [echuol] [uncertain] districts. House Bill 216; which your representative is cu-spon- poring, is the alternate proposal and

It provides for a wet 63,000 minimum for teachers" [salarics.] [uncertain]

I definitely foot that a 10 per cent increase in teachers" [salarica] [uncertain] Js inade- [quate] [uncertain] and am unalterably opposed to raising school taxes on the local level.

The local school district is now pay- ing for 21 per cent of the educational cost, while the state pays the remain- ing 72 per cent. With the [incrrase] [uncertain] in teachers" salaries, the state will be paying KS per cent and the local
