House Hill No. 142 was passed [this} [fron] [uncertain] week and sent to the senate for their) the consideration. This bill provides for W he construction of a State [Mffice] [uncertain] Kor [Building"]

Crockett Courier — February 19, 1953

[uncertain] and a State Courts [and] [uncertain] who Records Building," to be constructed Gat on property already owned by the/ iy, state, [dirtetly] [uncertain] in front of the capitol. D t [conaldered] [uncertain] it a privilege to support) gy this [bil], [uncertain] for it ia a real economy! [rhe] [uncertain] measure the

At present the taxpayers [apend] [uncertain] over yea $260,000 a yest In rent for office," y apace scattered al) over Avetin. Al per taxpayer from Houston or [Waiker] oan [uncertain] counties would have to walk 190) ro) blocks to see all of our-state [depart-| 1, ments,] [uncertain] and would find many of them) [09] [uncertain] housed In broken down ald homes.) [4,] [uncertain] These over-crowded and inadequately; [bullt] [uncertain] offices greatly diminish the [f+) coc ficiency] [uncertain] of our state employees. Some fro of our state departments are housed) y, in three different areas in the [city]] [uncertain] of Austin. [liv] [uncertain]

This will not cost the state anything.) y, as revenue bonds will be issued and th, retired by applying the annual rent! we are now paying. These two build- [ings] [uncertain] could be [pald] [uncertain] for in about 16 or 18 years, and would-then be owned oo permanently by the state. The space) [w}} [uncertain] now occupied by the State Courts and Library would be converted into of- [fice] [uncertain] apace for house members and ad- [ditional commitice] [uncertain] roma for the leg- [isinture,] [uncertain] which are badly needed. With the construction of these two build- rings all state departments, our course and the state library would be centrally located. Certain special interests" are [Oehiting] [uncertain] the passage of this bill in the [acnate] [uncertain] because they are renting l their buildings to the stats at very handsome rate. 1 personally do not [H] [uncertain] believe nor do [Ithink] [uncertain] that you be- [lieve] [uncertain] Uhat the [atate] [uncertain] of Texas should be a tenant tu [certaln] [uncertain] wealthy croup who rent their office space to the [atate.] [uncertain] 1 therefore urge you lo write any senator that you might know and Licutenant Gornor Ben Ramacy to support this bill one hundred per cent.

Another bill was passed exempting

Korran/veterana from the payment of fees tf any atate-aupported college.

This gives the Korean veteran the same fight to a tuition-free education that fear granted to the veteran of Woryl War fl.

[Kéep] [uncertain] your fine [lettare] [uncertain] coming and we fail) give you the type of repre- sensation you desire. 1 Respectfully submitted, Jamie U. Clements.
