CUTTING DOWN THE COST.

The Eisenhower administration is [comraltted] [uncertain] to go al) out in eliminating and punishing official corruption, jp reducing the cost of government and eventually cutting taxes, and In beevi- ly slashing [Che] [uncertain] tremendous public payroll. [34 looke] [uncertain] as if this last matter offers fertile field for achievement As everyone knows, the number of rov- [efnment] [uncertain] employes grew almost in-: credibly dung the Roosrrelt and Truman administrations, entirely aside i from [thoe] [uncertain] in the armed forces.
And, there is plenty of evidence that many of them are not needed, are overpaid by any reasonable standard in [the:]

[uncertain] light of the jube they hold and the work they do, and [bave] [uncertain] very dubious qualifications and abilities.
Early in January Senator Johnson of South Carolina, who is Democrat, returned from a seven-week foreign tour. He had gone abroad as head [lof apelial] [uncertain] congressional committee created to study American gorrn- tent [personne!
