WE APOLOGIZE.

By H. B. Milburn.

In last week's issue we wish to correct a statement under the caption "Big Bethel Has Something to Shout About." Big Bethel members are proud of their new edifice and in this they do have something to "shout about." We were in error though on having reported that the members have just about paid the church out of debt. They are working hard to "pay off" their indebtedness; and the membership, we understand, has met all payments when they became due. Efforts to liquidate the obligations will be needed for a long time to come; as future payments run over a period of years. 1t.

With continued effort and zeal on the part of Big Bethel's members as they have shown in the past and the payments "kept up" in the future, there truly will come a time that they will have "something to shout about" in having paid their church out of indebtedness. Rev. W. D. Lowe is the pastor of Big Bethel church (referred). 1t.
