TORM WREAKS HAVOC SATURDAY IN HOUSTON COUNTY

A tornado [atruck] [uncertain] In [Huston] [uncertain] county [arly] [uncertain] Saturday afternoon, creating [avoc] [uncertain] jn [ita] [uncertain] path. One death was used by the twister and three Inured people were brought to [Crocktt] [uncertain] for treatment of injuries. [ove] [uncertain] oe Rawls, [81,] [uncertain] was killed when [hia ome] [uncertain] at Wealey [Chape! waa]

[uncertain] destroyed. Mr and Mra. E. T. Covk and their [Teyear-old] [uncertain] daughter were injured when their home was demolished at [Yorter] [uncertain] Springs. The daughter was badly cut, the parents lesa seriously.

The storm first [dippeddown] [uncertain] in the Anh section, where one house was [jestroyed] [uncertain] and at feast two others [Jamaged.] [uncertain] The roof on the new Ervin [Vickers] [uncertain] residence near Austonio was damaged. Further east two more dwellings were blown down along [hichway] [uncertain] 21, before the storm turned somewhat and blew away residences near [Porter] [uncertain] Springs.

William High School, part of the Porter Springs district, on highway 7, was [completely] [uncertain] demolished, as [waa] [uncertain] the home of L. M. Estes. [Williams] [uncertain] High has an enrollment of more than 00 colored pupils. The frame [atrocture waa] [uncertain] erected about 1935.

From this point the storm headed toward Wesley Chapel. Reports are that two [housca] [uncertain] on the Halls Rulff read, one of them the Frank Hill old place, were blown down on this road. At [Werley] [uncertain] Chapel, besides the Joe Rawls home, residences of M, P. Lund, Grover Shanks and Lee Manning were either destroyed or badly damaged.

A school and a church were also de [molished] [uncertain] there.

No reports of damage were re [ceived] [uncertain] beyond Weasley Chapel. In ad- [dition] [uncertain] to the residences, school and church buildings, barns, trees, fences, [cle.] [uncertain] were blown down. Randolpb

Cook had several bead of cattle killed, according to [reporta] [uncertain] In Crockett Mon- day morning y Immediately upon hearing af the tornado, the sheriffs department be- gan [acheckup] [uncertain] of damage [anda] [uncertain] search je for possible victims of the wind. Highway patrolmen from several stations came here to offer ald. Remarkably, oy the [cavcalty] [uncertain] list seemed to have been yo [lHmited] [uncertain] to one killed and three in- cured. Almost miraculous [cacapes] [uncertain] from injury are told. Reports are that ten people huddled in the only corner of the M. P. Land home that remained at Wealey Chapel. Mr. Estes" house at Oakland blew away, leaving Mr, Estes lying on the bed. Several colored children lay on the floor in one house that [waa] [uncertain] lifted away.

Battery B, 133rd Field Artillery, local National Guard unit, was es ambled for a 24hour problem, planned to be held locally after high water on a creek cloned [highwey] [uncertain] 287 west of Paleatine and prevented more- [ment] [uncertain] to Kerens, The battery immo- [dlately] [uncertain] volunteered [seniatunce] [uncertain] and spent long hours In storm relict work.
