The Couriers has heard of some school buses not being able to make their scheduled runs on Monday and Tuesday, as a consequence some schools were perhaps not open on those days. One school we have heard of was Lottsville which was closed on Monday and Tuesday on account of high water and washouts. Some bridges were washed out on the Lottsville road. It was also reported that one of the school buses left standing empty at Wesley Chapel was totally destroyed by the tornado which hit Lottsville on Monday. It was said, and was uncorroborated.
