Austin, May 2G, 1953 [Editor] [uncertain] Courier:

The legislature will have adjourned when you read the letter. I did not vote for adjournment because I felt you wanted me tu stay on the job

Crockett Courier — May 28, 1953

Many would have the public believe that this session has been a [atroggle] [uncertain] between forces opposing any new tax measures and those believing that there were needs to justify new taxes [That] [uncertain] belief in only partially true. The [rea] [uncertain] struggle has been between there who would favor tax on our long [tranamiasion] [uncertain] natural gas pipelines which run outside of Texas and those who chose to protect the big [pipelire] [uncertain] companies. This was clearly proved when the no tax" boys, who protect vd the pipeline companies, tried [to] [uncertain] increase your local echo) taxes. [For.) tunately] [uncertain] we were able to put a stop tu this insidious move.

We have granted a [$180] [uncertain] per year, increase to state employees and about $200) per eat increase to college teachers. However, the pay boost for some [1,000] [uncertain] public school teachers has collapsed because the house [aad een:] [uncertain] ate failed to puss tax bill to go with the bill granting them $600 per year increase, [T] [uncertain] would have been willing ta accept a [decert] [uncertain] compromise [bere,] [uncertain] but ne compromise was offered which would pot [ineremse taxea] [uncertain] in the local. [achoal] [uncertain] district, Seither Houston not Walker counties could stand that increased burden at phis time.

The unpopular, unenforced [compul sery nutomublle] [uncertain] inspection law war not repealed [deapite] [uncertain] the efforts [of}] [uncertain] your vast [Texas] [uncertain] representatives, [We] [uncertain] were [sucewasful] [uncertain] in amending the pres [ent inepection] [uncertain] law, however, and tt should be better for our rural people

Your legislature has passed and now submit tu the people a constitutional amendment tu, [reise] [uncertain] the old-age [uesjaistance] [uncertain] ceiling from [$35,000100] [uncertain] tu, [$42, t0N000] [uncertain] This amendment, tf pass ed, will allow future sessions [tuo] [uncertain] ae cease old-age [anustance] [uncertain] allotments and sincerely hope that the people" will pase it. to the [peo] [uncertain] pie by this legislature [imeluding une rquinn] [uncertain] women tu serve on juries and another permitting Texana in the regular" armed services to vote fer the first time tn 80 yearn.

Apparently much-needed revisions to the Probate Code and Corporation: Cude have been just in the [ecrambie_ Revisoson] [uncertain] of the congressional districts, hus allee failed partially due to my own efforts 1 opposed every [Tediactrang] [uncertain] bill presented in the house because [cach] [uncertain] one would have harmed [vur] [uncertain] district by placing us with coun- i [tirs] [uncertain] having five tames the voting yep: [ulation] [uncertain] the we have

The lobbyists cart more [lafluence] [uncertain] on our legislature than J like. [Mang!"] [uncertain] times the interests of the people are sacrificed because of the influence of the special interests." [I] [uncertain]

I have constantly sought to repro sent a majority of the people at all times, giving you amy [honeat] [uncertain] opinion, on every [lasuc.] [uncertain]

You have my gratitude fog electing me and giving me the opportunity to [errve] [uncertain] you during the Sird evasion of the Texar legislature. Keapctfully submitted, Jamie [Ho] [uncertain] Clements
