the legions of Malenkov."

Representative Dies is certainly one of our best qualified [experta] [uncertain] on the [designa] [uncertain] of world [Communiam] [uncertain] against the security af our country. He was fighting this danger in the halls of congress back in the days [wheo] [uncertain] he got lite support in high government circles and, as a matter of fact, dead ly political opposition for taking such a forthright stand.

The Texas Democrat wisely calls for a policy that will keep our allies throughout the free world, although we should make clearer than ever before that r will not play Santa [Claus] [uncertain] to them. The isolationist would cut [aff] [uncertain] all foreign aid, spurn our allies tm Britain, France and elsewhere in the free world,
and cause un to stick our beads in the sand rather than face up to the aggressors led by Moscow,

As the [Texas] [uncertain] congressman adds, this splitting of the United States away from its allies is exactly the Commenting.

Eddle Dyer of [Houston] [uncertain]
addressed the graduating class of Crockett

High School at the elghty-first annual commencement exercises held at 8 [oclock] [uncertain] Friday night in the Crockett High Behoo! [auditoriutn.] [uncertain]

Dyer, in hie undergraduate days, was a [atar athicte] [uncertain] at Rice Institute In Houston. Later he was a [atar] [uncertain] pitcher for-the St, Louls Cardinals, and, following his active playing days, a successful manager of the Cardinals. The program was as follows:

Invocation, Mev, J. C. Strickland.

Introduction, Donnie Reynolds,

[Salutatory,] [uncertain] Bonnie Smith. Miss Smith, as salutatorian of her class, delivered a splendid talk on The Stepping Stones."

Pilgrims Chorus," Wagner, Brass Quartette.

Valedictory message, L. E. Sheppard Jr.

Song, I Belleve," by sextette,

Address; Eddie Dyer. Mr. Dyer talked on Football" and Work," bringing out strongly the [polnt] [uncertain] that while football" was fine as a sport and something one could enjoy, he instilled in the Choughts of all his. [listenere] [uncertain] that work" fs one of [the] [uncertain] Important and [fundamerital] [uncertain] principles in the American way of life.

Frank Granberry, president of the school board, presented diplomas to. 34 members of the graduating class.

The presentation of the senior gift was made by Donnie Reynolds.

Then, in a solemn and impressive manner, the [clase] [uncertain] rove and gave the Pledge of Alleglance."

Here we would [tke] [uncertain] to make further comment:

The American way of [ife] [uncertain] and the fundamental [principiea] [uncertain] which go to govern our country have always been instilled Into the hearts of children within our [achoola,] [uncertain]
