FORT WORTH CATTLE MARKET

By Ted Goudly.

Fort Worth, June 15.—Some improvement in the activity on cattle and calves, and considerably better prices on sheep and lambs, were the rule at F.W. Market Monday. Stronger demand from buyers from outside the state as well as the local buyers made the difference. Lighter supplies of livestock around the market circle also were a favorable factor.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $17 to $23, some choice fed steers averaging about $20 from McCung Land and Cattle Company, Johnson county, at $23, and some 500 pound yearlings from W. W.
