PATRIOTIC 10 CLOSE ON DAY OF OBSERVANCE

Since the Fourth of July falls on Saturday this year, there was some question as to whether the [merchants] [uncertain] would close on Saturday, the Fourth, or Monday, the 12th of July. The Chamber of Commerce sent letters to Ita [membera] [uncertain] for their opinion. The majority of these merchants voted to close on the fourth, as that is the day set aside for us to observe the independence [uncertain] of our country. The Chamber [ber] [uncertain] of Commerce also received word that all the larger cities would be closed, as well as the neighboring either of Huntville, Conroe, Livingston, Trinity, Navasota, Palestine and
