Friend Mildew says the spring branch near his house has dried up, the well has almost given up its last water, the cows are hunting another shady spot and the dog has scratched a new hole under the house. ## YOUR DRUGGIST KEEPS ON "GOING TO SCHOOL"

How long does your druggist go to school?

He must finish a university course before he is allowed to practice. But, in a larger sense, his schooling never stops. Each year new drugs are introduced, specifics for anything from arthritis to epilepsy. Your druggist must learn all about them. He reads constantly, goes to meetings, talks to doctors. His education continues until he retires.
