How Do You Stand?

It takes cooperation and financial assistance to build a successful chamber of commerce. The chamber of commerce needs your help. If you are an independent, won't you contact the chamber of commerce office and make arrangements to be on the active roll? Some pay their dues, when due. Some pay when past due. Some never do. How do you do?

People Live in It.

The more expensive home may be no safer than the low-cost home. Safety depends mostly on the design of the house, not on the cost of materials and construction. By giving your careful attention to the principal sources of accidents and fire, your plans can take into account the factors of "human nature" and human error. Most accidents occur from certain definite causes in certain definite spots, where proper planning can often prevent injury or death with little or no extra cost.
