RETURN FROM NATL.
SHRINE CONVENTION

Hi. B. Milburn, Reporting. [Me,]
[uncertain] and Mrs. W. [F.] [uncertain] Churchill have returned from their nine-days" trip to the National Shnne [cunrention] [uncertain] in New York City. Mr. Churchill is a, member of the Arabia Temple [of] Hoaston.] [uncertain]
The Churchills joined some 250 Shriners
in [Hovusten] [uncertain] in boarding special train made up for this [or-] [uncertain]

[casion,] [uncertain] consisting of 17 coaches, two diners, lounge care and baggage cart. One hundred thousand Shriners at-; tended the National Shriners convention, and they came from every stale in the union and Canada. One pf the highlights of the [coavention] [uncertain]
was the huge parade which the Shriners staged. There were 68 Temples represented in the parade t and [mony,] [uncertain] many bands such as the drum and bugle corps, oriental bands, [Beotch Siighlander] [uncertain] bands,

and the largest and most famous string band of violins and banjos in the world.
The parade started at [H:46] [uncertain] in the [afternoon] [uncertain] and lasted until [2:30] [uncertain] In the morning. It formed at Bird [atreet] [uncertain] and Gth avenue, and proceeded to Times Square to 39th street thence to Hth [arenue] [uncertain] for dismissal.

[5] [uncertain] Leading the [parkte]
[uncertain] were [New Aagk] [uncertain]

hosts and dignitaries, [fullowed] [uncertain] by a [calvacade] [uncertain] of one hundred and fifty

[polkemen] [uncertain] on motorcycles
and then by one hundred and fifty policemen on horseback. Policemen from all over [yoerivus] [uncertain] sections were represented In the parade. Of [apacial] [uncertain] interest and significance to this parade was the fact that the [Shriners] [uncertain] sold eighteen thousand tickets at [Chree]

Crockett Courier — July 23, 1953

[uncertain] dollars per tu sit in the grandstand erection for the parade The proceeds were donated to the hoe: [pital] [uncertain] for Crippled [Children.] [uncertain] After the parade the Shriners at-! tended an elaborate special show ot

Madison Square Garden, which featured some of the most famous talent from all over the United States, Fapacially appealing to Texans were the famous Palominu horses from Fort Worth which performed in [quadrills] [uncertain] and routines.

[Hospitality wae] [uncertain] a hey-note of [welcoine] [uncertain] everywhere. The city of New York police were courteous and helpful and everybody was especially considerate of the out-of-town [viri-,{] [uncertain] ton, especially the Shriners who were) identified by their wearing the red [feztes] [uncertain] and their wife and member of the family who wore [bedges,"] [uncertain] said Mrs. Churchill.

The hospitality of New York of- [ficiala] [uncertain] and merchants and everybody was something to rave about. The Shrinera and their families, during) their satay there, certainly held the key which opened to gracious [hoepitality] [uncertain] everywhere [thry] [uncertain] appeared," she continued,

The special train left Houston fur the Shrine convention in New [York]] [uncertain] with scheduled stops going up, at [St] Louisa,) [uncertain] Indianapolis, Buffalo and Albany. On their return trip stop were made at [Washington,] [uncertain] D. C. Chatta- [nooga] [uncertain] and [Lookout] [uncertain] mountain. Jn traveling over sections of the Blue Ridge and the Great Smoky [mourtaina] [uncertain] it took the aid of three engines to pull the train. Along the route, and especially at New Orleans, the Shriners had an opportunity tu take tours that were conducted by guides Also, along the route the Shriners were entertained by dignitaries al various stopover points,

Among others in this [srea—people] [uncertain] you would be interested in knowing wire on the trip [tov,] [uncertain] were: Mr and Mrs. George E. [Dareey] [uncertain] and daughter, [Lorena,] [uncertain] of Grapeland; Mr and [Mra].]

[uncertain] Homer [Westof] [uncertain] New [Waverly,] [uncertain] former residents of Crockett, and Mr and Mrs. Carl Bergman of [Livingston.""] [uncertain] continued Mra, [Churchill.] [uncertain]

We had a wonderful time, and honestly do [betieve] [uncertain] that tn the [mine]] [uncertain] days we were there we [naw] [uncertain] what it would take an ordinary [visitur] [uncertain] to pec it a menth'

There is one thing that [Church™] [uncertain] and [duscusered,] [uncertain] though and that t, that people are the same all over the United [States;] [uncertain] and whether [théy] [uncertain] are Yankees, southerners or westerners north, east, south or wert, people are friendly. We had s marvelous time."

LIONS LEARN OF ACTIVITIES AT BOYS" STATE

Ii. B. Miltum, Commenting.

At the meeting of the Lions" Clob [Tuesday,] [uncertain] Lion A. 5S Brewer presided in the absence af Lion Preadient [John] [uncertain] L. Dean. Lion [membera] [uncertain] enjoyed a delirious summer-time meal, after which they settled down to listening to business reports, club activities and the program. Lion D. E. Hughes, as program chairman, introduced [tbe] [uncertain] president of the Latthe League [Flaseball] [uncertain] Ansociation, W. H. Holcomb and the managers of [cach] [uncertain] team who were [xucsse] [uncertain] of the club) Hrewer Bennett, porte writer, was also introduced ar [grurst] [uncertain] of the club Jimmy [MecWilliams,] [uncertain] high school student whom the Lions" Club sponsored in sending to Buys" [State—for] [uncertain] 1953, was another [gurat] [uncertain] of the club. Jimmy bad several honors which [were]] [uncertain] bestowed upon him while there. Jim- my was guest [epeaker] [uncertain] of the chub Tuesday, and gave superb report of [hle] [uncertain] weeks stay at Boys" State. One thing all Lion members enjoyed hearing Jimmy say [waa] [uncertain] that he learned a jot about politics, and about the government of the state and that he felt that by the [assoristion] [uncertain] with the boys who attended Loys" Btate [(End] [uncertain] the experience gained there he would make a better citizen. Jimmy [aald] [uncertain] Although Im not Zl, and cant vote yet, one thing that 1 learned while there and that was quite forcibly impressed upon me for all times, was that am a boy of the state, and as [auch,] [uncertain] should be interested In the ways the state is pun. Too, we learned that no matter where you go, or what you do, or why you gu, one thing to) be remembered is that we are boys of our state when it comes to acting in good faith and judgement tn what [mattefe] [uncertain] we think best concerning good government and politics."

The chairman, Dr. D. FE. [Ilughes,] [uncertain] and A. S. Brewer, acting president for [Toesdays] [uncertain] meeting, both sincerely, thanked Jimmy for such an enlight- ending [teport] [uncertain] on the fine work which ie being done through activities carried on through Boys" State and tw Jimmy, Lien Brewer spoke what was) in the minds of all members present when be said, Jimmy, we thank you for your splendid report. You made a fine [reprraentative] [uncertain] to Boys" [State;] [uncertain] and we are proud of you"

[Notice.] [uncertain] is hereby given that a hear- [Ing] [uncertain] un the budget of the Crockett Independent [Sehow]] [uncertain] District will Le held in the School Tax [Collectors] [uncertain] office in City Mall on August Gth, from to G p m. [F. Y.] [uncertain] Granberry,
