PROGRAMOF MUSIC
TUESDAY

Tl. Milburn, Commenting.

J. W. Martin and Marcus Mason had the [progtam] [uncertain] for the Lions" Club Tuesday. Lion Martin [intraluced hle] [uncertain] san, Jaines A. Martin, and Miss [Sandra Sevier] [uncertain] ne a [toam] [uncertain] as duo-organiste and many lovely [meludies] [uncertain] were played by the two. There two talented art-its of the organ not only play beautifully, but they know how to [chovec] [uncertain] a repertoire of popular musical num-[bers] [uncertain] that are not only soothing end restful, but they select numbers that aid in relaxing a group of [bualneas] [uncertain] people from the [ernal] [uncertain] tensions of the days business affair. [Thee] [uncertain] two rendered such popular musical [nunibers] [uncertain] as Seven Lonely Days," Raster Parade," [FP. 8S.] [uncertain] I Leve You," [Latok] [uncertain] Over Your Shoulder," Fiddle- [Faddle,"] [uncertain] St. Louis Blues" and quite a number of other popular selections.

Before the noon-hour fellowship meeting broke up all were up on their [fert] [uncertain] singing a [favured] [uncertain] melody that all knew the words to. Once even,

Dr. Edward Darecy led the group in singing The Bells of Saint Marys."

Lion Darsey [wasnt] [uncertain] interested in the group singing this lovely song in any half-way fashion, so he enthusiastically called out to the group to try once more to [aing] [uncertain] the song better and said if you don't know the words, [I] [uncertain] call [themout] [uncertain] to you in advance. Just sing!" And believe me, all Lions joined in to sing the song quite as it should have been sung. Then even- [rybody] [uncertain] joined in singing The Eyes of [Texna,]-too.] [uncertain] We think the group would have stayed longer just for a few moments more, but the time limit of the noon-hour meeting came to a [clase] [uncertain] all too soon Lions left the mewling [aaying] [uncertain] the program was one of the nicest programs they had had in a long time. Everybody enjoyed the program

From a recent newspaper we clipped a letter from a Korean victim: Be Thankful, America!" Here it [is—in] [uncertain] part: Korea, a place where men die for the close of free- [dom—hoping] [uncertain] that some day this world will have peace.

A place where the great doctors, nurses, the farm boys, the millionaires son, the soldiers and chaplains go to help people find peace, and know what it means to go to church and to believe in God."

The Korean victim, among questions asked, were, Have you ever seen a prison camp? Have you ever seen [meo] [uncertain] praying on the battlefield? Have [yeu caten] [uncertain] the little food they [cive] [uncertain] you"

[Presbyterian] [uncertain] church, who [talke] [uncertain] on Faith, as [an]] [uncertain] essential part of the equipment of every fighting man."

Rev. Newton:

The release of American prisoners of war from the [proecn] [uncertain] camps of North Kores has revealed at least [two]] [uncertain] things. Not only have we Leen able to find [aut] [uncertain] how the [Communists] [uncertain] have treated their prisoners, bet we have also learned more about the moral) condition and spiritual stamina of our military personnel

Many of the stories which here been told by those [seturming] [uncertain] should br a source of prude to all Americana, for they have proclaimed to all the world that the [farth] [uncertain] of e GI is more to be reckoned with than the weapons he bears. Russian leaders know now that the capturing of troops a only the [firat] [uncertain] of their many problems. They have learned [frum] [uncertain] experience that the disarming of man [dors] [uncertain] not necessarily leave him powerless. Even though person can-do nothing but think and pray and read hie Bible, he still is able through faith to receive and used the power of God

Although a person can be deprived of his independence, he cannot Le prevented from [exerrising] [uncertain] his" [4e-] [uncertain] upon God. He-who ts Godieliant ts to be feared among men, for though [outwardiy] [uncertain] he may appear to tu weak and helpless, inwardly he be strung and able to overcome much

And this ls what happened in the prison [campe] [uncertain] uf North [Korea.] [uncertain] Men who ere [undrrnuurished] [uncertain] and [whe] [uncertain] had to suffer the brutalities of Com [muniet] [uncertain] mistreatment remembered the preaching and the teaching which once they had beard) They [recalied] [uncertain] the example of Christlan homes They read the Word uf God as they found it in their Testaments and meditate upon its relevance to their situation Whee possible they worshipped together and where allowed they built [themeelyes] [uncertain] a church. They preyed ae never before, and many for the [fired ume] [uncertain] foetal the meaning and the ever of earth Trusting God their, [Father] [uncertain] for survival, their doubts and the fate were transformed into the confidence of [Lelicf] [uncertain] and courage

For centuries the [Chnstian] [uncertain] church has been preaching that [fatth] [uncertain] was for teeing ate for dying. In recent years chaplains hate been [teaching}} [uncertain] eur soldiers, [sarlorra] [uncertain] and airmen that faith was an essential part of the equipment of every fighting man And tow in recent days we have been [ree;} [uncertain] minded again that faith le for survival as well as for [Irving,] [uncertain] fighting and dying.

Ae we contemplate the survival of these who through faith have now returned, our feelings can beet be [enpreseed] [uncertain] in the [worde] [uncertain] of a familiar hymn. Bubstituting the word sons" for the word fathers," we can joy fully [eay:] [uncertain] Faith of our sons" living) still In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword, O how our hearts beat high with [Juy] [uncertain] whenever we hear that glorious word. Our sons, chained in) prisons dark, were [etill] [uncertain] in heart and conscience free and Liest would be their [childrens] [uncertain] fate if they, like them should die for thee. Faith of our son" Gods great power shall win all nations unto thee and through the truth that comes [frum] [uncertain] God mankind shall then be truly free. Falth of our eons we will love beth friend and [fue] [uncertain] in all our strife, and preach thee, [lov,] [uncertain] as love [hnows] [uncertain] how by kindly words and virtuous [Uf,] [uncertain] Faith of our aeons, holy faith! We will be [irue] [uncertain] to thee [th]] [uncertain] death"

Thank you, Rev. Newton.
