TUESDAY

By Hattie Belle Moburn

The Rev James M [tiefli] [uncertain] of the [First Methetist] [uncertain] church read wedding vows for Sine Juha Ehizabeth [Lee] [uncertain] fer ant Mr. Billy Charles Hill an an [limprasive] [uncertain] double-ring [ceremuny] [uncertain] at 10 clock Tuesday morning, [Sep! tember] [uncertain] lat

Mr and [Mrs.] [uncertain] Dale [Leediher] [uncertain] of this! [ety] [uncertain] are the brides parents. The groom is the son of Mr. Eunice Hill of Centerville.

The church looked [borcly] [uncertain] arranged especially for the wedding ceremony with decorations predominantly white and green. The chancel [rai] [uncertain] was outlined effectively with dainty white [clematice.] [uncertain] The altar table was covered with-a white satin cloth and [a»] [uncertain] lovely white wicker basket filled with a gracefully arranged bouquet of white asters centered the table. Tal) white tapers in the tall candelabra placed at [vaniage] [uncertain] distances at [cach] [uncertain] side of the table completed the decorations the over-all [scetting] [uncertain] one of simplicity and charm as the couple took their places to repeat their wedding [voWn] [uncertain]

Candle lighters who also served as ushers were John Davis Hines Jr and' Kenneth Wayne Morgan Mrs. J. [D.] [uncertain] Hines of Centerville was matron of honor. Misses Anna Marie [Clines,] [uncertain] June [McElyra] [uncertain] and Margaret Ann Leediker were bridesmaids.

Bob Wallis of Centertille [acrved] [uncertain] the groom as brat man,

Miss Carol McConnell [nang Because"] [uncertain] and st the conclusion of the wedding [ceiemony] [uncertain] she sang ad Lords Prayer."

Miss Martha Spidle played the traditional wedding music and also served as accompanist for [Mise] [uncertain] McConnell.

The bride was given in [matitage] [uncertain] by her father, Dale Leediker. [1] [uncertain]

For the wedding ceremony the bride chose a beautiful honry-beige faille quit. Her accessories were in a deeper shade uf brown her hat being 8 be- coming close fitting [cluche] [uncertain] of [aie] [uncertain] Jenves with tiny pearls scattered ef- [foctively] [uncertain] over the top. With this hat m tiny nose-tip frei) was worn. She, carried white orchid atop her white
