LOCAL SALVATION ARMY PLANS FUND DRIVE

[Tuesilay] [uncertain] afternoon the Salvation Army Service Unit for Houston county met at the Crockett Hotel to plan their financial campaign for 1953. Mr. Shelor Edmiston ie drive chairman, with [cochairmen] [uncertain] A. K. Daniel and

Mrs. [Reginald] [uncertain] Driskei! The permanent committee ix" [rofipoacd] [uncertain] of [Mre>] [uncertain] Orrico Manson, chairman; Mr. T. E. Welden, treasurer; Lanier Edmiston, E. M. Rowland, Rev. James Heflin, Mrs. Reginald Driskell, A. K. Daniel, Dan Julian, Shelor Edmiston and Jeff Davia

Texas [bas] [uncertain] 101 county service unite of the Salvation Army in operation today. It is a down-to-carth welfare program that people like. When [J] [uncertain] local family is in need of medical help, or food, or other emergency, any two of the local committee can quickly K the cane. The fund eliminates the need for some civic minded person taking up donations to take care of m [transicnt] [uncertain] family or similar cases.

The fund rive will begin Tuesday, September 15, at [9:30] [uncertain] a m. with volunteer workers from [mens] [uncertain] service! [eclabs] [uncertain] and women organizations meeting fur coffee at the Crockett [Hote}] [uncertain] where Mr. Shelor [Edmiston] [uncertain] will give them instructions and prospect cards! A goal of $1500 for the entire county ls sought. A portion of the money raised is used for the [atate] [uncertain] program), of the Salvation Army which operates w hospital and home for un-wed [mo-} ' thers] [uncertain] im San Antonio, a camp for boys [whe] [uncertain] would not be able to attend [8] [uncertain] camp, and many other helps to un-! [fortunates.] [uncertain]

If the [Jocal] [uncertain] funds run [ovt] [uncertain] before" the [budect] [uncertain] year is completed, the state office will [refynd] [uncertain] sufficient money for local needs.

The [locai committree] [uncertain] can act quickly, in [mecting] [uncertain] welfare needs and this is one reason why 101 Texas counties are using the Salvation Anny today. This is the first financial drive of the local committed, and they urge cooperation of all citizens to help in this unselfish cause.
