is just that President Eisenhower gambled on a long shot when he appointed

Mr. Durkin and the ad-

NOW THE LADY WORRIES,

The most [partlaan nonpartisan™]

recenUy by Mra Eleanor Roceevelt.

The Nationa) Issuce committee has these objectives, the good lady states:

To refute prevalent fear and can-

Among the [nonpartiaans"] [uncertain] who will peek to do all this are such well-

REVISION OF INCOME TAX LAW 18 NEEDED.

American taxpayers have found a) spunky champion in the aged, but still vigorous, New York Republican, Con-[gretaman] [uncertain] Daniel Reed. [Congressman] [uncertain]

Reed is just as determined now that some relief be given income tax- payers. He said two tentative agree- [ments] [uncertain] already reached by the commit- tee are to help fathers whose depend- [ent] [uncertain] children work at part-time jobs and to [pimplify] [uncertain] the system of declar-:

College Station, September [21—] [uncertain] Pred [manufacturernt dolng] [uncertain] business le [Texas] [uncertain] sold 4,117,344 tons of commercial feed during the states fiscal year riding [Avgwat] [uncertain] 31, according to D. Brock, chisel of the feed control [eocivke] [uncertain]

While this amount was 263,332 tons, of 65 per cent, below the [alltime] [uncertain] high figure of [4,405,476] [uncertain] tons sold during the 1951-52 [Sleca] [uncertain] year, it [wae] [uncertain] 263,744 tons greater than the tonnage sold in 1951 and 1952 996 tons [Fdore] [uncertain] than the total for 1952.

Rock believes some of the decrease in the use of commercial feed during the fiscal year just closed [wae] [uncertain] due to a change in the [Tessas] [uncertain] feed law, effective September 1, which permit feed [manufscuturs] [uncertain] to pay feed in- [spechion chatges] [uncertain] on bulk lots instead of on an individual sack basis. FOR GOOD WINTER PASTURES, PLANT NOW 7

College Station, September [21.—] [uncertain] Boil moisture conditions over mach of the state are now favorable fer the planting of winter pastures. This, coupled with the fact that grazing crops are needed to supply forage in the drouth areas and as a cheap source of livestock feed In all areas, should be [al] [uncertain] of the stimulus required to get record acreages of pasture crops planted, says Extenalon Pasture Specialist E. M. Trew.

To get the greatest total production, forage with the highest content of protein and minerals and the longest grazing season, Trew recommends the planting of a [comination] [uncertain] of a grass and a legume.

For the cast Texas [arca,] [uncertain] Trew recommends [osta,] [uncertain] barley, rye and Italian [ryegrass] [uncertain] in combination with either vetch or crimson clover. For the Gulf Coast ares, oats, berley and Italian [ryegrass] [uncertain] with [Hoban sweetclover:] [uncertain] for the Blacklands and Grand Prairie areas, oats, [baricfy,] [uncertain] wheat and Itatlan [ryegrass] [uncertain] with Hubam or [Magirid sweetlover] [uncertain] or vetch in the West Cross [Tibers] [uncertain] region, cats, wheat and [bariey] [uncertain] with [Hubam] [uncertain] or Madrid [sweetclover] [uncertain] or rye and vetch for the Central Basin, Rio Grande Plain and Edwards [Platean] [uncertain] areas, oats, wheat or barley with Hobem or Madrid [aweeetclover] [uncertain] if desired and for the Rolling and High Plains, he recommends wheat, barley or rye with Ma- [drid sweetclover] [uncertain] if for grazing only.

Trew says research done at the [Beeville] [uncertain] Experiment Station shows that the practice of planting the small grain in 38-40 inch [rowa] [uncertain] with a row of Hubam, [berecem] [uncertain] clover or alfalfa seeded in the [middle—which] [uncertain] gives al- ternate rows of the small grain and [legume—ls] [uncertain] especially adapted to pas- [ture] [uncertain] in the Rio Grande plain area when [molsture] [uncertain] is limited. Both crops are seeded at the same time.

In the section of the state south of a line run east and west through Tem- [ple,] [uncertain] Trew says, the email grain and [sweetclover] [uncertain] can be seeded at the same time, but north of this line, it is bet- [ter] [uncertain] to [oreraced] [uncertain] the [sweetclover] [uncertain] in the spring.

Trew [ocffera] [uncertain] this suggestion co seeding rates. He says from two to three bushels of oats should be seeded per acre if the crop is to be used strictly for grazing. Lf the seeding is done in combination with s legume, then this rate for oats should be cut i half as should the normal seeding rate for the legume. Trew points out that [fertiliser] [uncertain] should be used in all sections of the state where it le needed. A poll test will help determine the type and amount needed and ls described by the specialist as the best fertilizer dollar 4 that can be spent, The use of for [tilizer] [uncertain] will pay big dividends when needed in extra production of high [4+] [uncertain] quality forage.

Finally, Trew suggests that the b- cal county agent be contacted for the latest information on the best adapted varieties, seed treatment and cultural methods for your county. Getting the answers before the pasture is planted, [adda] [uncertain] Trew, ls Just good busl- Deas and [Insurence] [uncertain] against failure.
