How many times has your heart thrilled to the beauty of the flowers placed In church-sanctuary for all to wee on Sunday morning? Through all the years placing flowers in a church has been such a lovely custom. A kind of taken-for-granted [cuatom] [uncertain] for the most part, aa a part of the regular church services but their magic has a deeper [mesning] [uncertain] than that. They were placed there by a church circle oe church member to the glory of God and quite often, also, in loving memory of a [dear]] [uncertain] member of the family or a [lifelung] [uncertain] friend.
