OUT OF TOUCH

Dr. Humphrey Lee, S. M. U. 's highly respected president, is an interesting speaker. You never know just what he is going to say, yet what he says has a lot of meaning. He has a casualness of manner that belies his depth of thought.

A few minutes ago he was telling the Salmanship Club about a psychology professor and then switched to "But I didn't want to talk about psychology. I want to talk about common sense." When the group laughed he followed up with "they're not the same thing at all."

Jim Wolff up Santa Fe and a lot of other advertising writers are urging more common sense in advertising and less flubdub. They seem to think that advertising is a waste of money and that the results are too poor to get on a different level from common sense ideas and natural conversation.

OURS TO USE

Many business heads deprive their firm the advantages of profitable advertising and good public relations because they do not understand these things. The mechanics of advertising is a mystery to them and public relations is an abstract side.

Dr. William M. "Most of us do not understand electricity," he said, "but that does not mean that we are afraid to come into a lighted auditorium."

Most editors are humbly aware of the solemn obligation of the printed word. They try to be as objective and fair as it is humanly possible to be.

Most editors are supremely conscious of the fact that a mass obligation of this kind is not to be handled lightly and that literary prostitution is a greater sin than the better known carnal transgression.

YOU also have responsibilities that must be faced. There are a thousand times when newspaper readers know they should all down and pen a message to the editors. It can be a note of protest, or a mere expression of personal views. It can even (Praise God!) be a note of commendation of thanks for something printed in the newspapers.

Of every one thousand of you who feel the urge approximately one of you discharges this personal obligation. And of the other thousands who actually don't feel the urge, we can only say that the newspapers are their direct salvation. That they don't realize it is beside the point. They are those who "never miss the water till the well runs dry."

It is to you newspapers that we can look for the continuous flow of the essence of true and personal liberty.

The fact to be faced is that newspapers are like a Republican Democracy where you have your personal freedom by governmental process and action, but all such communications must carry author's signature.

BULLDOG RALLY
TRIPS CLEVELAND
BY 21-13 COUNT

The Crockett High Bulldogs rallied in the fourth quarter for two touchdowns to outpoint the Cleveland High Indians at Bulldog Stadium Friday night 21 to 13. It was the second time the local boys had come from behind in the exciting contest.

The Indians won the toss and elected to receive. Crockett choosing the north or east goal. O. C. Nelson made a good return of the kickoff, but Crockett promptly hawked an Indian fumble on the Bulldogs' 45-yard line. John Loch Cook failed to block a perfect pass and Bulldog's Ed Nelson pointed out on the Indians' 33. Cleveland racked up three first downs before the Bulldogs held on their 28-yard line.

Cleveland failed to hold a touchdown pass and Arledge kicked out on the visitors' 22. Howard then broke off left tackle, got away from seven tacklers on a brilliant 64-yard touchdown run. Nelson's placement was wide. Crockett immediately retaliated on a play that netted 14 yards. Arledge ran back to the Indians' 45, and as he was going down lateraled off to Bobby McCrummen, who sped the remaining distance. From place kicking, McCrummen smashed for the extra point, giving Crockett a 7-0 lead.

Cleveland started the second period with a 50-yard scoring march that picked up three first downs and culminated in an end-around jaunt of 34 yards by Kenneth Ewert. Nelson converted for a 13-7 lead. After half, Crockett's defense pressed the Indians' offense in midair. Arledge intercepted a Cleveland pass. Crockett drove a 15-yard penalty, but Cleveland drove an interference penalty on a Bulldog aerial. Crockett picked up two first downs before punting and a clipping passed.

Between halves the fine Cleveland High band put on an excellent performance, with Doris Thomas as drum major. This is one of the finest bands to perform here in recent years. Its marching was almost unbelievably precise.

The Crockett High band used slow and sweet numbers for a fine intermission show. Rex Ferguson, on behalf of the football squad, presented a bouquet to the "sweetheart" of the football squad—a distinct surprise to the popular drum major, Betty Ellen Gentry.

In his official proclamation, Crockett's Leonard Hale promptly hawked an Indian fumble on the visitors' 36-yard line and we took off toward again. McCrummen powered over tackle for the final yard and McClean again kicked the extra point, making it 21 to 13. Cleveland made a final drive to the Crockett 17, but the Bulldogs braced then and took the ball. Crockett held the remaining time. Cleveland racked 12 first downs.

Cleveland-K. Everett and Everett (C) ends. Ballew and Wawier tackled; Audil and Smith, guards; Brubaker, center; Nelson (CC), quarterback; Sims and McCrummen, halfbacks; Arledge, fullback; Robinson, Hauler, Merwin, Thomas, Duncan, substitutes.

Crockett-Dotson and J. Cook, ends; B. Cook and Glines, tackles; Hale and Merrinether (CC), guards; Ferguson, center; McClean (CC), quarterback; Sims and McCrummen, halfbacks; Arledge, fullback; Robinson, Hauler, Merwin, Thomas, Duncan, substitutes.

CROCKETT JUNIOR
HI TOPS GRAPELAND
ON SAFETY, 2-0

Coach Robert Summers' Crockett Junior High football team, unable to muster a touchdown scoring offense, blocked a punt late in the final quarter Thursday night at Grapeland and emerged with a 2 to 0 victory over Grapeland Junior High in their first outing of the season. All Crockett players were in their first game.

Crockett received and mounted a good drive, but fumbled the ball away. A short Grapeland drive upstaged out. Crockett had to punt, as did Grapeland, with Don Peterson making a good return of the Grapeland kick to the Bulldogs' 33-yard line as the first quarter ended.

To open the second period, Peterson took a pitch out and went to the Grapeland 10, but Crockett drew a 15-yard penalty for illegal use of the hands on offense. Son Darney went but a jump pass failed of completion, and Grapeland took over on her 10, only to fumble the ball back on her 45. Grapeland held and took over as the half ended.

Crockett received the second half kickoff, but had to punt, with Peterson returning 20 yards to the Grapeland 35. Crockett fumbled the ball away. Grapeland picked up one first down, mainly on a long pass, but Crockett held for down on the Grapeland 35.

Grapeland quickly took possession again, but had to punt. A Crockett punt blocked Grapeland up and Crockett's defense pressed the Sanders back almost to their goal line, where Buddy Gentry, Grapeland's star, attempted to punt. The Crockett line swarmed through to block the kick and the ball rolled behind the end zone for an automatic safety.

Offensive use of Crockett went Peterson and Cook. Roger Jones starred both ways. Sonny Shivers and others showed fine defensive form.
