ANOTHER TEXAS

BRAG ON GRACIOUS HOSPITALITY

Through the Associated Preas from Mission, Texas, we note the following: Porter rode in an open car with Mr, Eisenhower along 48 miles of crowd-banked city and country highways Saturdsy. The president was on his [fcet] [uncertain] more than half the time waving and acknowledging the cheers that greeted him. There was a 48-mile tong, unin- [terrupted] [uncertain] ripple of [handclapping] [uncertain] and cheers," Porter [sald.] [uncertain] I was struck by the look of adoration on the faces of the people who lined the streets and highways." And How is that fur Texas hospitality."

CROCKETT HIGH HAS ASSET IN [GOOD] [uncertain]

SPORTSMANSHIP

H. B. Milburn, Commenting.

Both the football players and Crocketts [sportaminded citlzens] [uncertain] were highly commended by coaches at [thé] [uncertain] Tuesday [Lions!] [uncertain] Club meeting. Coach J. T. Owen [sald] [uncertain] Ive done some serious thinking along this line of thought on [sportamanship"] [uncertain] and Ive come to this [comlusion;] [uncertain] That Crockett ls a good [sportsminded] [uncertain] town and its citizenship shows good sportsmanship at games."

Coach Owen said, We as coaches notice the boys individually his [epirit] [uncertain] toward [footba!]) [uncertain] and his attitude, [as.] [uncertain] well az the [rpirit] [uncertain] and attitude of the team a3 a whole. The Crockett High School team has demonstrated a good spirit and a good attitude toward) football that [Is] [uncertain] to be commanded. These two assets are not always easy to find im [teama;] [uncertain] but wo do say that we have noticed [thelr] [uncertain] fine [sportamanship] [uncertain] here, and in their playing with other teams.

As a coach I can amy that it is wonderful to have so much cooper: [tion] [uncertain] among the [boya] [uncertain] on the team. It is pleasure to work with these boys."

In speaking of the district teams the coach [sald] [uncertain] J feel that the teams in the district are [golng] [uncertain] to be well balanced this year. [beliewa] [uncertain] we have a [60-40] [uncertain] chance town games. [Of}] [uncertain] course It ls going to be up to the boys. And naturally with the encour-! [agement] [uncertain] on the sidelines that you have shown for your home-town team they are going to try hard to win."

Coach [Summers] [uncertain] spoke of the Junior High football team. He said that the little team" was displaying fine qualities in a democratic attitude, in [sportamanship] [uncertain] and In good citizenship. He felt that football playing among) the junior high [membera waa] [uncertain] good). and should be encouraged more Assistant.Coach Ralph [Burnett in] [uncertain] brief remarks [heartliy] [uncertain] endorsed al) [thet] [uncertain] was said in regard lo [football,] [uncertain] and of the football team. He [felt.] [uncertain] that some good games were in store for the [fana] [uncertain] this season.

Coach Owen said The [sportsman-}. tke] [uncertain] attitude shown among [Crockett-]. clititena] [uncertain] means a lot to the [players;/] [uncertain] and they, in turn, know that the! [sportamanship] [uncertain] shown by the players and their team means a lot to [you.].] [uncertain] The good sportsmanship you show [as/] [uncertain] citizens and [tbe] [uncertain] good sportsmanship shown by the Crockett High [School], teamspeaks] [uncertain] well for the high school). boys and for the town, Cosches from other towns have come te us and) commended the team and towns spec- gators at the game on these fine the displayed." [ihe Prekden] [uncertain] John [Lo] [uncertain] Dean Jr thanked the coaches for their [commente] [uncertain] and in closing remarks said: The town is indeed proud of the way time, in behalf ef the club, I should) [lke] [uncertain] to thank the coaches, too, for the splendid work they are doing among the boys and for the team."
