WOMEN OF CHURCH HONOR MRS. ALBERT ALDRICH

Dy [Tattle] [uncertain] Belle Milburn.

Al a regular meeting of the Women of the Church Monday, October [19,]] [uncertain] a member of the church graciously recalled that Mrs. A. A, Aldrich, at beloved member of the [womans] [uncertain] work) within the church, [waa] [uncertain] Lhe [oldeat] [uncertain] liv- Ing member, not only in the [Preaby~ terian] [uncertain] church of the [cily,] [uncertain] but that the is the oldest living member In the [Urasos] [uncertain] Preabytery. As s [matler] [uncertain] of fact it was the-opinion of the member who presented this [Information] [uncertain] to the assembly Monday evening that [Mra.] [uncertain] Aldrich was probably the oldest member of the [womans] [uncertain] work in-the entire Texas Synod.

Mrs. Aldrich, as a young girl, was a member of a family among the early settlers In this county. She was a daughter of the Inte John F. Ariedge and Harriet Jones n her early twenties she [waa] [uncertain] united in marriage to the tate Judge A. A. Aldrich, prominent Lawyer and [staalesman] [uncertain] in hie time. This prominent couple, together, [devoled] [uncertain] a great part of their life to the church of [thehr] [uncertain] choice, the First Presbyterian church of this city.

The late Jedge A. A. Aldrich was a staunch member and elder of the church for many, many years. He wat superintendent of the First [Pres-' byterian] [uncertain] church Sundsy [echoes]] [uncertain] fer [0] [uncertain] year

Mra. Aldrich, as his partner in life, devoted much of her time to her family and te her church. Even today, as she has reached the [goldenage] [uncertain] well within the nineties, her life te filled with seal and interest in love and dative lo her church. Mrs. [Aldrich] [uncertain] has been a leader and active member in every organization of the woman work of the church through many, many years. She has untir- tingly given of her time and talent and of her mind and heart, time and [tlme] [uncertain] again fer her church. Such animate giving of [ber] [uncertain] talents to her church has been an inspiration to others. As a worker In church en- [deavors] [uncertain] she has, through the years, endeared, herself te all members. The [charch,] [uncertain] and church work, and the people in It have been matter close to her heart through the years. In PTA work and to her memory many a member and many a former president of the [amantclation] [uncertain] owes much of their [auccesa] [uncertain] In the work to her enthusiasm for It

Mrs. J. A. McClain, too, caught that spark of [enthusiasm] [uncertain] which In her own sweet and winning way has also [becn] [uncertain] source of inspiration to YTA members through past years and at the present time.

Mrs. [McClain sald] [uncertain] The first work lever did was to help Mrs. Carl [Goolsby] [uncertain] make the year books." Since then Mrs. McClain was actively engaged, on various committees through these yearn and that glow of interest" remains today. She served three different times se president. She attended district and state meetings [tlme] [uncertain] and time again. Besides PTA work she has been active in her church work, [aerving] [uncertain] as president of the Womans Social society and other various activities within the church. At one time [sho] [uncertain] served for four years aa president of the [Womans] [uncertain] Misslonary society of a the Neches River association.

To know her is to love her. Her work in our town" has been good work" always.

The Crockett Courfer and [ita] [uncertain] staff join others" about town in [congratu~ lating] [uncertain] Mrs. McClain in this honor.-
