WAY DESSERT

Not only summertime fare, soft drinks can be the basis for many glamorous desserts. Such as this Southern Fluff. Simple enough for a beginner to master, it can be used three ways: as a sherbet, pudding, or pie. After preparation, it can be stored in the refrigerator without loss of flavor or appearance.

SOUTHERN FLUFF
1 bottle of Fluff
1 envelope undiluted gelatin (1 1/2 cups)
Juice of 1 lemon
4 egg whites
4 tbsp. sugar

Four one bottle of Fluff in a saucepan, and gelatin, let stand five minutes to soften. Heat, stirring until gelatin dissolves, only letting liquid get warm. Remove from heat, beat egg whites with added undiluted Fluff. Slowly add sugar, beating until whites are very stiff. Fold in gelatin mixture, and mix well into sherry glass. Serve four.

For variety, pile Southern Fluff in dessert dishes and cover with fresh vanilla custard, as shown above. Or try Graham crackers and peaches, filled with Southern Fluff, and decorated with whipped cream.
