CROCKETT, TEXAS,
SACRED HARP SINGING AT OLD PILGRIM CHURCH
Crockett, Texss,

Crockett Courier — November 19, 1953

November [oH,] [uncertain] 1953. Mr. W. W. Alken, Crockett, Texas, Dear Friend: Not knowing what your obligations or responsibilities might be on Thanksgiving day, but [kaowing] [uncertain] what your tendencies are in going [places“] [uncertain] Im writing to tell you about an annual event near [Elkhart] [uncertain] that day.

For some years now the [prople] [uncertain] around Old Pilgrim church have had the [Sacred] [uncertain] Hard [singera] [uncertain] from over cast [Texae] [uncertain] gather with them on that day for a songfest.

Since the type of music that you evidently heard In childhood around your old" village of Rake Pocket" will prevail there that day, I feel like you would be bound to live over some childhood days [again—their] [uncertain] old tunes" probably lingering in your mind fer days to come.

Bro, Paul Welsinger is pastor of the church at Old Pilgrim and he delights in having [thls] [uncertain] annual day when eo many people gather in from far any [places—he] [uncertain] will be delighted to baby you there that day, if you can get off.

This church at Pilgrim claims the distinction of being the oldest Protestant church In [Tezae,] [uncertain] tt having been organized In [Ilinois] [uncertain] just after 1400 [A.D,] [uncertain] and some 20 years later came to Texse as a caravan of 2) ox wagons, bring a [amall] [uncertain] colony of people j [whe] [uncertain] constituted the church and selected the area where [thia] [uncertain] church now [atathds] [uncertain] an their future abode.

A Reo. Parker, [thelr] [uncertain] leader and preacher, had previously hen to Texas and had been granted the privil-' [eae] [uncertain] of establishing colony, and had learned on this trip that it [wae] [uncertain] not lawful to [organise] [uncertain] such churches in Teune at that time Mexican rule and Catholiciam being dominant), but if one was already [organised] [uncertain] Uney would pet be outlawed.

He subsequently returned to [Illinwit afd] [uncertain] organized the church, and my recollection is it was 1606, bat It may have bern ne late an 832 when they finally found [iL] [uncertain] possible to start for Texas. There was [5] [uncertain] period of more than 20 years after [ite orgenttathon] [uncertain] before they could arrange their [coming~—ne] [uncertain] roads, no bridges, caused the trip to [Texas] [uncertain] to require many, many [monthe—fighting] [uncertain] Indians on the way down, and after [geiting] [uncertain] here, [wete] [uncertain] some of [thelr] [uncertain] harrowing experiences.

from of these singers that gather in for [thie] [uncertain] annual day come from far away [pleres—eome] [uncertain] from [Laaisiaha] [uncertain] and their singing that day would undoubtedly carry you berk to live over some arty childhood experiences more than anything [yau.] [uncertain] may have experienced in many days.
