If each) of un, as individuals, think back

great debt of gratitude that [cach!]
[uncertain] of us owe to God j

Let us, for a moment, however, reverse our thoughts and try to ap-. praise our unworthiness for all the, blessings we have received. Aa individuals and as nation, we are guilty of disobedience,

love and understanding for those who are about us and for our fellow man.

God grant that on this [Thanks.]

Crockett Courier — December 3, 1953

[uncertain] your common [eense] [uncertain] will convince you of this:

Whatever may have den the original need for making the FBI report on Harry Dexter White and [othera] [uncertain] confidential, that need no longer piste, Time and again reports on every person mentioned have been [publicised.] [uncertain]

There was need to make the official record clear to halt the [untruthe] [uncertain] and deliberate false conceptions created by public figures trying to evade responsibility.

J. Edgar Hoover offered no [teatlmony] [uncertain] which needed now to be kept secret. And for the good name of the splendid organization he beads, he had great need-to show the American people what it had done in its [intereat.] [uncertain] Whon he had finished testifying you knew certainly that the FHI had done [ita] [uncertain] level best for the American people, that Harry Truman, whatever his good intentions, had [not—Dallas] [uncertain] News.

AS A MAN THINKETH IN GIS HEART 80 18 HE"

A man might as well be a Communiat os to believe In the things which the [Comemunists] [uncertain] teach. What) in the difference? All Communists and all those who believe in things the Communtats teach must be cant out. [If] [uncertain] a high official in Russie ie a Communist and a high official in the United States ia a Democrat or a Republican, but believes in things that" the Communists teach, what is the difference actually between these two officials?

It is time the American people of patriotic mind sat down and took stuck with their own common sense as the great Americans of the pest hare done in times of national danger.

In the War of the Revolution, three honest farmers who refused a rich, bribe brought the Dritish [apy.] [uncertain] Major Andre, to George Washington, where he was tried and executed as a [apy] [uncertain] and his accomplice, Benedict Arnold was forced to flee into the British lines. CROCKETT COURIER:

Trumaniam, he said, can perhaps beat be defined as the placing of your [politica] [uncertain] party above the interest of the country, regardless of how much the country ly damaged thereby." It ja a definition rather milder than some had expected and one that will be accepted by millions of [Americans. Noustan] [uncertain] Chronicle.

NO CAUSE POR PRIDE IN CONVICTION KECORD.

Senator Williams" figures on [ths] [uncertain] cleanup in the Internal Revenue Department may be reassuring, but are distressing, too. He [sald] [uncertain] the other day that [alxty] [uncertain] former government tax officials have been convicted, 388. more have been fired, have resigned, or have retired while under [investigadon] [uncertain] In the past three years. There is reassurance in the fact that one of our most important agencies is now in presumably better hands. Bat the" nation has had a sore blow to its pride in the demonstration of wide spread venality and corruption In the federal government.

Historically, Washington hae never been lily white. A certain amount ef corruption ia always present. But only in one or two instances prior to Roosevelt and Truman hae it reached embarrassing [proportions—] [uncertain] notably in the Grant and Harding administrations.

In part, the condition which hae [flouriahed] [uncertain] for twenty years is attributable to the [post-1922 crretion] [uncertain] of a new army of officeholders. Fedcra! [etoployment] [uncertain] bardeen limited for our entire peacetime history. New and Fair Deal policies provided more, posts than had existed even in wartime. All were originally political and most were subsequently blanketed in to civil service. But logically there was s maximum of politics and a [mainimem] [uncertain] ef caution in personal ve lection.

Unfortunately, too, policies st the top furnished poor example for [prersonnel] [uncertain] at the bottom. [Roonevelts] [uncertain] Second Lovisiana [Purchase"] [uncertain] was typical of political practice at the expense of national Integrity calculated to encourage cynical laxity. And when Troman rewarded an honest district attorney who had convicted the Kansas City crooks by firing him, there was certainly no encouragement [jfor] [uncertain] official rectitude.
