W. M. Battis was nominated by the Colored State Teachers' Association as one of the candidates for the position of second vice president. This organization, composed of 7000 teachers, held its annual session at Texas Southern University. Many of the district teachers' associations aligned their support to W. M. Battis.
Fred B. Hattis, a younger brother of Battis and principal of a school at Waco, was nominated for the position of fourth vice president.FOUR CONVICTS OUT THREE GO BACK INFour convicts fled the Eastern farm near Weldon Friday. Three were promptly rounded up near Weldon, two up a tree and one elsewhere.
However, the fourth prisoner had not been located up to midnight Friday.
He is a prisoner who once escaped jail at Jasper while being held there on a bench warrant. Local peace officers assisted guards in the search Friday. It is said that the four men fled as a guard yelled at them to halt, but did not shoot.LOVELADY COMPETES

LA VEGA IN WACOThe Huntsville High Hornets, who squeaked by the Jasper High Bulldogs at Jasper Friday night, 19 to 14, will travel again this week as they move into the quarterfinals of the class AA state football championship playoffs.
They will meet the La Vega High Pirates at Waco Friday night at 8 o'clock. Six of the game was attended, since the schools met in the playoffs in 1961 at Huntsville. La Vega is just across the river from Waco. La Vega trounced Gonzales last week.CHEVROLET SHOWS 1964 MODELSDetroit—Chevrolet introduces its 1964 model passenger cars Friday (December 18). More than 7000 retail dealers nationally will display a variety of body styles in events that range from annual open house to elaborate entertainment programs.The showings come near the close of one of the company's most successful years. A statement by W. E.
Fish, general sales manager, reported 1963 retail sales will be topped only by the record-breaking volume of 1960, once again out-selling all other automotive makes. Fish described the new models as "greatly improved" and "fit successors to the cars that have led the industry in sales for 18 of the last 19 years."COUNTY FARMERS HAVE MEETING
FRIDAY NIGHTBy Dave G. Tiller Jr., County Agricultural Agent.
Directors of the Houston County Farm Bureau have called a county meeting for Friday night, December 11, in the district court room at 7:30.
The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the cotton program for 1964.
William Wademyer, field representative with Farm Bureau, will discuss marketing quotas and average allotment programs as they are now set up.Cotton growers will receive their 1964 individual farm allotments before next Friday night. Farmers will vote December 16 on a cotton referendum, so this meeting is interesting to present both sides of the picture. All cotton farmers are urged to attend and participate in the meeting.
