CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR REDBUD GARDEN CLUB

By Hattie Belle Milburn.

Mrs. Nat Patton was hostess for the Redbud Garden Club's holiday party Thursday afternoon, December 16, at her home on East Houston avenue. Holiday ornaments placed at various points helped spread the holiday theme and spirit throughout the gathering.

The little green spruce Christmas tree atop a three-tiered table set off effectively many Christmas gifts, many of which had been placed under the tree.

Graciously sprays of the southern mistletoe decorated the windows in the dining room. The merry-making revolved in the dining room, where a silent, personal message from the hostess in wishing the season's greetings to guests.

The brilliant center table arrangement was fashioned of glittering Christmas bangles in a three-tiered epergne effect; the epergne resting on a centerpiece of crushed rose petals.

Mrs. J. L. Rogers, president of the club, opened the meeting with prayer. Holiday arrangements were the topic for the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Vernon Garner brought many fine Christmas ideas for do-over arrangements. She displayed a lovely do-over arrangement around a star-shaped candy cane; and later presented this to the hostess for her use to deck the door of her home for the Christmas holidays ahead.

Mrs. Frank Hill read a chapter entitled "Flowers in the Holyland." Mrs. E. K. Capelton gave timely suggestions on "Care of Christmas Plants."

Arrangements prepared by club members and placed at various points in the living room were studied by club members. These included religious themes which had been placed upon the mantel, an arrangement of poinsettias in a low vase, and the decoration for the door. All were judged "perfect" in design and beauty.

Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour which followed the program. Mrs. Milburn assisted Mrs. Patton in co-ordinating duties.

Each guest wore home a lovely Christmas corsage fashioned by hand by one of the members of the club.

Official memorandum by Allan Shivers, governor of Texas:

The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce is observing its 33rd year of service to the nation, and the Texas State Junior Chamber of Commerce and its member organizations

NAVASOTA CANCELS NINE GRID GAMES BOOKED FOR 1954

Navasota High cancelled their 1954 football game with the Crockett High Bulldogs after their district organizational meeting. Addition of Bellville and Columbus to district 24-AA required Navasota to start district play two weeks earlier and caused conflict with the date Crockett and Navasota have been playing.

Nine games have been announced by Navasota to start district play on September 14, 1954. October 23 is also open, but that date probably will be left open for the anticipated addition of Woodville to district 17-AA in 1955.

New foes, old ones who have not appeared on Crockett's schedule for some years, are Groves and Elkhart. Missing from the schedule are San Augustine, who dropped back to class A, and Cleveland. The Cleveland series was discontinued because of the distance necessary for travel.

Following is the schedule to date: Sept. 10, Crockett at Trinity; Sept. 17, Groves at Crockett; Sept. 24, Groves at Crockett; Oct. 1, Crockett at Elkhart; Oct. 8, open; Oct. 15, Madsonville at Crockett; Oct. 22, Kirbyville at Crockett; Oct. 29, open; Nov. 5, Crockett at Rank; Nov. 12, Jasper at Crockett; Nov. 19, Crockett at Livingston; Nov. 26, Crockett at Livingston.

John Ben Shepperd and family of Austin have remembered the Crockett school with the following Christmas message: "We hope your Christmas will be as wonderful as the Shepherd family's."

Dinner-Oyster cocktail, mulligan, sweet pickles, roast young turkey, cranberry sauce, oyster dressing, giblet gravy, sliced ham, filled mince cream mashed potatoes, cauliflower au gratin, chicken salad, plum pudding, hard sauce, apple pie, mince pie, cream, bananas, pears, apples, mixed nuts, candy, cigars, cigarettes, demi-tasse.

Responsible for the Christmas menu was S. S. Magruder, field artillery paymaster, and R. H. Johnson, chief commissary steward.

Now if this menu and feast do not make your mouth water, you have just lost your time in reading the menu. It, at the least, makes you want to feel your pocketbook.

JUST A WORD WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Twelve this week against eight last week—the Courier is one and a half times better in spite of the weather. Those of our subscribers who are making the Courier's subscription list better will please accept our thanks. This week's list of subscriptions and renewals follows:

A. C. Neal, Crockett Bl. 3; Mrs. N. J. Rice, Texas City; Mrs. E. W. Tigner, Houstonville; B. M. Chamberlain, Crockett; Mrs. Wendell Vaughan, Dallas; John L. Dean, Crockett; Will G. Gresh, Bellville; H. D. McKinnon, Houston.

The Kennard High School boys' basketball team opened defense of their district championship impressively Tuesday night, December 8, defeating Austin 72 to 35 in the Austin gym. The Kennard team, coached by Supt. C. L. Bitter, was in fine form for the first district game.

Despite heroic efforts of Cheval, who personally accounted for 22 points, Austin's girls lost a close one to the Kennard girls, 65 to 63. Montgomery scored 34 points for Kennard.

The director of law enforcement for the Texas Game and Fish commission sold an unusually large number of prosecutions have been made for shooting game from automobiles. He said the latest arrest report shows thirty-four persons were caught firing from a car, adding that most of the cases occurred during the recent morning deer season.

The automobile also became a party to the seven arrests for hunting from public roads. The automobile likewise was linked to most of the twenty-nine arrests for hunting at night. Missing from the schedule are San Augustine, who dropped back to class A, and Cleveland. The Cleveland series was discontinued because of the distance necessary for travel.

Following is the schedule to date: Sept. 10, Crockett at Trinity; Sept. 17, Groves at Crockett; Sept. 24, Groves at Crockett; Oct. 1, Crockett at Elkhart; Oct. 8, open; Oct. 15, Madsonville at Crockett; Oct. 22, Kirbyville at Crockett; Oct. 29, open; Nov. 5, Crockett at Rank; Nov. 12, Jasper at Crockett; Nov. 19, Crockett at Livingston; Nov. 26, Crockett at Livingston.
