PRESIDENT OF REDBUD GARDEN CLUB ENTERTAINS

H. R. Milburn, commenting on the Christmas season and in the traditional spirit of the Christmas season, Mrs. J. L. Rogers opened her home with a coffee Thursday morning, December 17, the living room was a heavy old-fashioned type tea kettle which was placed beside the hearthside; and a table with an old-fashioned lamp resting on it and a large family Bible opened to a favorite Bible passage lent endearing charm to the room. Over the mantel were beautifully arranged sprays of the glistening green holly leaves touched here and there by bright red berries.

The lovely Christmas tree of southern pine set off a vantage point in the corner of the living room. All through the house there were touches in decorations which bespoke a gracious welcome to friends.

The dining room table, centered with a lovely basket arrangement with a snow man and glistening red apples and pine boughs touched off festively inside the basket was another picture-perfect motif within the home. The buffet, too, carried out additional arrangements in decorating with Christmas greens and red berries. The house had a merry look of Christmas cheer; and this was recognized in the pleasant conversation which flowed among friends who were present.

The hostess served delicious right-out-of-the-kitchen ginger bread topped high with whipped cream and a cherry, and an abundance of hot coffee. Some 22 guests enjoyed the hospitality within Mrs. Rogers' home Thursday morning.

ONE CONVICT KILLS ANOTHER AT PRISON FARM

A 30-year-old convict was stabbed to death in a fight with another inmate in a dormitory building at Eastern Prison Farm in Houston county Saturday morning.

Prison authorities identified the dead man as W. A. Alexander, serving a 25-year sentence from Cameron county on four counts of burglary. His assailant was identified as James Kelley, serving 25 years from Frio county for robbery by assault.

Prison Record Chief J. C. Roberts said the fight took place about 7:45 a. m. It started when the two convicts began arguing over who was going to use a small table, but there for the convicts to use as a craft work table.

The two men grappled a few minutes and after Alexander began to use a knife, Kelley picked up a leather-working knife and stabbed Alexander, Mr. Roberts said.

Alexander was rushed to the prison hospital at Huntsville. He died at 8:30 a. m.

Stability flourishes only when men are held responsible for the development of their own lives. When men are told what to think, they become a stagnant, lifeless family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan F. Craddock of Austin and members of their family have been cordially invited to spend Sunday, December 27, at the old home place on East Houston avenue with members of the late H. J. A. family.

Our greeting is an old one, but Christmas is a time for old songs, old wishes and old friends. So may we say, Happy Holiday.

WINTER'S APPROACH HERALDED BY PRETTY FROST

That was a nice and plentiful frost we had Monday morning. The collards were sweetened, the persimmons ripened, the nuts brightened, the turnips enhanced and the outlook cheered. Now for an outlook into those turnip and collard patches and persimmon fields. The possums are fattening and the rabbits are preparing for their first snow hop of the winter. All they have to worry about is getting their ears frostbitten. But show us that spring at the foot of the hill, where the wooden fence rails form a resting place while the thirt is quenched from the cooling waters of the spring, and we will give you an invitation of a pleasure the pioneers enjoyed unknown to the heirs of modernity. While frosts are the herald of winter, the greenness of the Christian's Christmas and the acts that usually follow an overindulgence at the wrong time, there being no right time.

Enclosed find check for renewal of the Courier that is my way of keeping up with you people. Marjorie, Sue and I were guests of Mary Frank Smith this past week end, and we enjoyed being in Crockett very much, seeing old friends and meeting new ones. We brought home lovely pine trees for our Christmas tree. We have trimmed it with pine cones large and small, painted gold, then sprinkled with gold glitter. It is gorgeous. The holly we got was beautiful. We shall think of Crockett friends as we look at our tree.

We wish all of you a Merry Christmas.

Nannie H. Morrison.

May the coming year
bring you happiness,
luck and much success!

LEGION SPEAKER

L. F. Page of Carthage, commander of the department of Texas, American Legion, was guest speaker at "Commander's night" barbeque dinner held Tuesday night in the American Legion building. Mr. Page delivered a forceful address on Americanism and the work of the Legion to about 60 persons attending.

Nolan B. Huff, commander of Bonifield English post, presided. The invocation, as well as the benediction, was delivered by Past Chaplain A. R. Lee. Jess Holliman of Livingston, commander of the adjacent district of the Legion, was introduced and he responded briefly.

SHIVERS EXPECTS TO REBUILD

We frequently hear the question asked, "Will Bob Shivers rebuild his three-story burned building?" The Courier editor took it upon himself to ask Mr. Shivers, and this was his reply. "It is my intention now to put a new building on that location, but I don't know exactly when. My intention is a one-story building, putting more money into a one-story building, per story. It is doubtful if the third or even second stories would be a profitable investment now when the town is spreading outward instead of upward."
