What attitude shall we take toward our fellow men! Excepting the [ques-] [uncertain] [tion:] [uncertain] What attitude shall we [take,] [uncertain] toward God there is no more im-j, portent one for a man to answer,

There are only three possible an- ayers, We find them all in [Jesus")]) [uncertain] great parable of the Good Samaritan.

There in the [anawer] [uncertain] of the [robbers.] [uncertain]

They sew a man on the road between

Jerusalem and Jericho, and they set) upon him, took his money, stripped him of hie clothing, and left him half dead e

There is the [anawer] [uncertain] of the priest and the Levite. They committed no crime? against [thelr] [uncertain] fellow man. When they saw him wounded beside the road they probably denounced the robbers. But they did nothing for the wounded man. There is the [anawer] [uncertain] of the Good Samaritan. When he saw the [woundleat] [uncertain] man, he had compassion on him, and hound up his [wounds—and] [uncertain] took care of him. He comes down the centuries a the beautiful symbol of i the Christian way with ones fellows, to economies.

If economy e so necessary in [une, oderal] [uncertain] government, there are plenty [4] [uncertain] if places other than veterans" been: [ita,] [uncertain] where it could well be practiced.

And how about calling off all loans o [fotelgn governmenta] [uncertain] and fund he [alaing] [uncertain] campaigns for unfortunates overseas until our own broken fight-, ing men are taken care of? i If we [havent] [uncertain] enough [meney] [uncertain] to support there men, then we certainly have no business subsidizing the econ-! [umy] [uncertain] of other countries, [eapecially] [uncertain] our former enemies.

Ive received many letters on this subject from those who have the in-tereat of our veterans at heart.

One missive asks me to consider how [puhy] [uncertain] our expenditures on vet-! [erana] [uncertain] rehabilitation are compared to foreign aid coats, Alluding tc a national magazines scalding report that veterans" [bene-] [uncertain] fits had cost Uncle Sam something" like [$62,000,000,000,-1] aay] [uncertain] there is" one thought our nation should grasp. And that s that America was saved by those very [aame] [uncertain] veterans on whom the $61,000,000 000 was spent.

Nor is there enough money in the treasury to compensate for the loss of one soldier who [pald] [uncertain] the supreme) sacrifice protecting our precious [reedoma."] [uncertain]
